PLAN HONOR FOR HEROES OF WORLD STRIFE

Armistice Day Celebration Is Prepared by Glendale Legion Post

PROCLAMATION BY MAYOR ROBINSON

Five short years ago this nation was engaged in a desperate war, the greatest of its history. Millions of our boys were under arms, with thousands of casualties daily. Then came the Armistice, and a wave of joy swept over the land when the glad news came that no more of our boys would be sacrificed upon the altar of war.

Armistice day accordingly appeals most deeply to the hearts of all of our people; not alone the soldiers who fought for us, but to all the others who uncomplainingly toiled at home that the armies might be properly cared for at the front.

I therefore urge all of our merchants to close their places of business on Monday, November 12, in order that they and their employes may participate in the patriotic services of the day in memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice for us. "Lest we forget."

Final plans for the celebration of Armistice Day, Monday, November 12, will be laid tonight at the regular meeting of Glendale post, No. 127, American Legion, which has charge of the arrangements.

The selection of a marshal for the parade and a speaker for the short ceremony to be held at the high school athletic field following the parade will be decided definitely.

In response to an appeal made by Chalmer D. Day, commander of the local post, and a proclamation issued today by the mayor, the business houses of the city will close all day, thus insuring full participation in the parade and other events of the day by local patriotic and fraternal organizations.

All Units in Line

An intensive drive is being made to insure representation of as many units as possible, in order that the record established in recent years may be equaled, if not surpassed. The line of march is from the point of formation, Cedar street and Broadway, west on Broadway to Brand boulevard, north on Brand to Wilson avenue, cross over and south on Brand to Harvard street, then into the high school athletic field where a short service in memory of departed comrades will be held

'OXY' SOPHS METE OUT JUSTICE

Freshmen Crimes Bring Swift Retribution as Penalty Is Imposed

By H. THOMPSON RICH
Of The Evening News Staff

The ominous Upper Tribunal has again fractured the peace at Occidental college, leaving many a wound on the anatomy of certain fractious freshmen, withal, and modifying only in minor details those "barbarous" days when the Puritans purified the unruly by immersion in the chilly H20, otherwise known as aqua pura or just plain water.

Sentences were pronounced yesterday afternoon, following the weekly court martial of the day before, and executions took place on the lower quad, with upper classmen meting out the grief while the fair co-eds looked on curiously and fearsomely.

Harold Wagner, chief justice by reason of his position as student body president, took care on Wednesday that the punishment prescribed exactly fitted the case in each instance, and was present yesterday afternoon to prevent any boisterous or untoward conduct.

Sophs Seek Revenge

Owing to the fact that the "tub of no sins," as the famous ducking trough is dubbed, had been spirited away last week by a group of recalcitrant frosh and required a day and a night of searching to locate, the sophomores were in vengeful mood; and when the babes had marched in lock-step to the top of College hill and brought back the mystic bath-tub, a round two dozen were forthwith immersed therein, the beastly judges hurling the struggling victims headlong into the coolish waters and leaving the criminals to sink or swim.

Others experienced the stocks, as a penalty for breaking old rules and traditions, while still other wretched miscreants met punishment direct from the hands of their superiors, accommodating the latter by bending over to the proper posture for administration of such justice, the most common crimes on yesterday's docket being refusal to wear the frosh cap, flirting, and use of naughty words.

Unfortunately, a lynching upset the judicial equipoise of the afternoon. Sir Cyril Gloyn, greatest of all small freshmen and as yet untamable, standing about four feet eight in high boots, suddenly hove across the sacred campus in a most noisesome shirt of Napoleon faded purple.

Shirt Stirs Sophs

It proved to be his undoing. With the snort of a mad bull who has seen red, the sophomores dashed to this rebel and without warrant or jury trial brought him before the audience, where cries of "be-head him" were heard and his ear-drums were riddled with invective.

It was finally decided to be-

ELKS SHOW GETS $1000 FOR CHARITY

Entertainment and Dance at Tuesday Afternoon Club Please Big Crowd

In anticipation of the great philanthropic activity of each holiday season, Glendale Elks of lodge No. 1289 were hosts last night at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, delightfully entertaining a crowd that entirely filled the auditorium and banquet hall, and realizing approximately $1000 for the charitable work planned.

Over a year ago the Elks gave the use of their clubhouse to the Tuesday Afternoon club women for a big society circus and as a return compliment the club women asked the Elks to use their beautiful club home, for which they were raising funds, to give a benefit for the holiday philanthropic work.

Officers Pleased

The affair last night was a big success in every detail and James A. Apffel, exalted ruler; Willis Kimball, secretary, other officers and committee members are to be congratulated on the splendid way they handled the large crowd at the program and later for dancing.

The program given in the auditorium included eight numbers, with live harmony by the Elks' jazz orchestra, directed by Bill Bode. Many of the numbers were by professional artists from out of town.

Musical Numbers

Especially enjoyable were the vocal numbers by Signor Elia Faggioli and Madame Teodora Wisniewska, Glendale residents, and the playlet presented by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lingham, also Glendalians.

William Meade Chapman and Ray Galvin were members of the entertainment committee.

Special mention should be made of the fine work done by the dance committee, including Joseph E. Bellue, J. H. Hearnshaw, R. C. Evans and Harry Whaley.

Bandit Gang Loot Iowa Bank of $5000

MASON CITY, Iowa, Nov. 9.—A band of bandits, after cutting all telephone and telegraph wires leading into Thompson, Iowa, near here, early today dynamited the safe of the State bank of Thompson and escaped with loot valued at $5000, according to the estimate of L. E. Isaacson, president of the bank.

Deputy sheriffs were immediately on the robbers' trail, but no trace of the men has been discovered. Most of the loot was in cash, Isaacson said.

AUTOISTS ROBBED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Held up by two armed bandits while they were seated in an automobile in Western avenue early today, Charles Johnson and a girl companion were robbed of jewelry and cash amounting to $200, it was reported to the police.

MURDERED BY MAFIA

OAKLAND, Nov. 9.—Belief that Alfredo Speranzini, wealthy contractor who was murdered under mysterious circumstances at Crockett, near here, last night, was the victim of the mafia was expressed today by the authorities.

William Nagel Distributes C. of C. Literature on Western Trip

The big 50 ton, 600 volt, 400 horse-power Baldwin-Westinghouse electric locomotive of the Glendale & Montrose railway arrived in Glendale shortly after 7 o'clock this morning from the factory of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company, at East Pittsburg, Pa., bearing William Nagel who has guarded this $30,000 engine on its record run of fourteen days.

It was met by Preston L. Hatch, general manager of the Glendale & Montrose railway, and a reception committee from the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, headed by P. J. Hayselden. Mrs. Nagel and other members of this trusted employe's family were also present to welcome him back with his precious trust, and numerous fellow employes of the company and interested Glendalians were on hand with a friendly greeting, as the big red locomotive was drawn up the Salt Lake tracks on Glendale avenue, and cut loose just south of Broadway, where the reception was held.

Advertises Glendale

Conspicuously displayed on the sides of the engine were the sixteen-foot orange banners supplied by the Chamber of Commerce, which have proclaimed all along the line:

I'm on My Way to Glendale, California,
The Fastest Growing City in America.

The engine bore on its rear platform a sign put on at Atlantic City, N. J., following its appearance at the recent electrical exposition there, reading:

From Here I Go to Glendale, California,
The Fastest Growing City in America.

This latest addition to the equipment of the Glendale & Montrose railway, according to General Manager Hatch, will after January 1 supplant the steam locomotives which have been carrying freight over the Salt Lake line. Its great power will enable it to pull with ease a train of ten loaded freight cars, he states. The engine is equipped with four type 562-D-5 railway motors and is of Class B-1, carrying lightning arrester, motor cut-out switch, reverser, master controllers, air compressors and other standard equipment.

Slept in Cab

Mr. Nagel, who made the run with the new engine from East Pittsburg to Glendale, slept right in the cab, on an improvised bed. He reports that they left the Westinghouse plant October 24, were shunted out to East Pittsburg, laid in the yards over night and pulled out for the long run early the morning of October 25.

He left Glendale on September 25 and visited in Cincinnati and other points for two weeks, arriving in Pittsburg in ample time to thoroughly inspect the Westinghouse plant, which he says is a marvel of modern industry, employing 20,000 men.

Snowing at Chicago

When they pulled out of Chicago it was snowing, he states, and at Cheyenne, Wyo., there were three inches of snow on the ground. At Salt Lake City the weather was fair and cold. From Las Vegas to San Bernardino is described by Mr. Nagel as offering the most beautiful scenery of the entire run. It was raining when

MRS. STOKES IS WINNER OF SUIT

Sensational Case Decided by Jury Late Today After 5 Week Trial

BULLETIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes today won her fight against charges of infidelity brought against her by William Earl Dodge Stokes, her 73-year-old husband. The jury refused to grant Stokes a divorce which he had asked on allegations his wife had been intimate with Edgar T. Wallace, California oil promoter.

By JACK CARBERRY
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The final curtain was descending on the marital drama of "Stokes vs. Stokes" today.

Max D. Steuer, chief counsel of William Earl Dodge Stokes, 73-year-old millionaire, who is seeking to divorce his pretty titian-haired wife, Helen Elwood Stokes, resumed his final argument in the case this morning.

Regardless of the verdict, the case of "Stokes against Stokes" is far from over.

Appeal Predicted

Victory for Stokes is expected to result in:

First—An appeal by Mrs. Stokes to the higher courts.

Second—An action by Stokes to have his two children, now awarded to the mother, taken from the jurisdiction of Juvenile Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, and awarded to him.

Third—A contest of the dower right award, granted his wife by the New York supreme court.

Victory for Mrs. Stokes probably will bring:

First—A grand jury investigation directed by District Attorney J. A. Banton of New York, to determine if perjury was committed in the present case.

May Prosecute Stokes

2—Prosecution in Chicago the first week in December of conspiracy indictments against Stokes, one of his lawyers and five of his witnesses.

3—Institution of Mrs. Stokes' separation suit, with a demand for $75,000 a year alimony, the case to be heard by a justice of the New York supreme court.

4—An appeal to a higher court of the verdict in the present case.

5—Institution of action by Mrs. Stokes to have her dower right for $2,223,333 confirmed at once.

Such litigation would probably keep the Stokes case on the legal calendars of at least three states for the next five years.

$1500 to Curb Floods Will Be Appropriated

Approval of an appropriation of $1500 to be used in aiding flood control work in Glendale will be made to the board of supervisors at their meeting on Monday by J. W. Reagan, engineer of the Los Angeles county flood control department, provided that a formal request from the Glendale city council is made to him before that time.

This promise was made to L. T. Rowley, representing the Glendale Chamber of Commerce fire prevention and flood control committee at a conference held with the engineer this morning, and he will immediately take the matter up with the city council.

America and Allies Must Save Germany, Warns Senator King

Situation So Precarious as to Compel Attention of All Peoples, He Says, Regarding Danger Found in Bolshevism

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The American government, in common with the world war allies, must rescue Germany from disintegration and economic ruin or bolshevism will run rampant over all Europe. This was the warning issued today by Senator William H. King, Democrat, of Utah, in a statement urging President Coolidge to immediately summon a world conference to save the Reich and preserve world peace.

"The disintegration of Germany," Senator King said, recently returned from three months in central Europe, "will shake the world."

King said that Germany's crash is imminent, and that Russian communists already are organized to support a monarchist revolution against the Berlin government with the ultimate aim of establishing a German soviet.

"The situation in Germany is so precarious as to compel the attention of the peoples of all lands," said King.

Catastrophe Coming

"The destruction of Germany would involve the whole of Europe, and such a catastrophe would follow as to shake the world. Aside from any legislative formula or juristic consideration, the United States should interpose to avert the imminent calamity.

"Our government should promptly call a conference of the allied and associated powers for the purpose of considering the necessary steps to be taken to save Germany and to preserve the peace of Europe. Meantime, the hands of the German government should be aided in every way. Steps should be taken to supply food to the suffering inhabitants of Germany, because starvation in the face of the coming winter will hasten the marching spectre of bolshevism.

Need of Conference

"Even if France should be recalcitrant to this movement, the conference should proceed. The facts as to Germany's capacity to pay reparations should be ascertained and findings made with respect to the controversial questions which now separate France from her former allies.

"Findings by a conference of this character would commend themselves to all peoples and the conscience of the world would compel their acceptance by France and Germany alike."

France should modify her present attitude, which is contributing to the demoralization of economic and political forces in Germany and may end in the submergence of the German people under a tide of Russian Bolshevism," King added.

Reveals Plan of Attack

"During my three months' tour of Europe the evidences to me were conclusive that the communists of Germany and Russia were united in their efforts to destroy the German republic and to establish in Germany a dictatorship of the proletariat, amenable to the Bolshevistic leaders of Russia and the third internationale."

The plan of attack, King said, was to "separate the working

Spanking Jurist 'Devilish Joker' in Younger Days

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 9.—Police Judge Carlos W. Goltz got his name in all the papers when he told a dozen boys who appeared before him for Halloween pranks to go home and have their parents do a little spanking. "Hizzoner" was press-agented as the advocate of a "national spanking day."

S. Duncan Wakefield, of Kansas City, Mo., an intimate friend of the judge when both were boys, read about his old playmate's new ideas. Writing on the subject of Judge Goltz inaugurating "national spanking day," Wakefield said:

"Allowing my memory to cover a lapse of sixteen to eighteen years, I recall a boy who was the most devilish Halloween joker I ever saw. That boy was Judge Goltz."

Wakefield recalls that he was the only person who had the honor of giving the judge a spanking with a bed slat, but admits Judge Goltz locked him in a closet in retaliation.

The Judge has not yet set a date for national spanking day.

TODAY'S EVENTS IN TURBULENT GERMANY

The Bavarian nationalist revolt appeared today to be collapsing within 24 hours after it was begun last night at Munich.

Fighting was reported at Munich between Reichswehr and Fascisti, in which General Ludendorff, one of the ringleaders in the uprising, was wounded.

Conflicting reports were received over the actual fate of Ludendorff and Adolf Hitler, leader of the Fascisti.

South Bavarian Reichswehr entered Munich during the morning.

There were evidences that the struggle in Bavaria is between the two factions of the nationalist party for control. So far, Von Kahr is the victor. He is supported by General von Lossow, former commander of the Munich Reichswehr.

At Stuttgart soldiers and police attacked the Fascisti, expelling them from the barracks and municipal buildings.

Advices from Thuringia said that the program for the Bavarian Fascisti to "march upon Berlin" today —the fifth anniversary of the 1918 revolution, has failed.

ANNA MERRIKEN WEDS F. C. HERMAN

Big League Player Marries in Quiet Ceremony at Home of Bride

A wedding of unusual interest to Glendale residents took place this morning when Floyd C. Herman, better known as "Babe," took as his bride Miss Anna Merriken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Merriken, 371 West Broadway. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. H. C. Mullen of the Pacific Avenue M. E. church.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the parents of the two contracting parties and the bride's sister being present. The bridesmaid was Mrs. Genevieve Cleeland and the groom's brother, Stanley D. Herman, acted as best man.

Attended Local School

Both "Babe" and his bride are well and favorably known through a residence in this city covering a number of years. Mrs. Herman graduated from the Glendale High school in February, 1923, and her husband attended school here for some time before his ability as a ball player attracted the attention of the big league scouts and such flattering offers for his services were received that he could not resist them.

During his three years in professional ball Babe has played with the Edmonton, Alberta and Memphis, Tenn., teams, and next year he goes to the Boston Red Sox, where Howard Ehmke, another Glendale High school star, is doing the twirling. Babe is noted for his heavy hitting, plays first base, fields well and can pitch. He is playing with the Glendale team in the Southern California Triple A winter league.

Since returning after the close of the season last fall he has been staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Herman, 1610 Kirkwood street, Pasadena.

The Merriken home was prettily decorated for the occasion with chrysanthemums in various shades.

After a honeymoon of one week, the destination of which is being closely guarded by the bride and groom, they will be at home to their friends at 439 Harvard street, Glendale.

REVOLUTION IN BAVARIA LOSES ITS LEADERS

Dictator Von Kahr at Munich Orders Arrest of All Hitlerite Fascisti

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The meeting of the inter-allied council of ambassadors, set for 5 o'clock, to deal with the Bavarian revolt was indefinitely postponed as a result of news that the uprising had failed. Advices from Germany during the afternoon said the situation was steadily improving.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—Dr. Von Kahr at Munich has ordered the arrest of all the Bavarian Hitlerites (Fascisti) according to information just received here.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—Fighting began today between reichswehr and German fascisti at Munich in which General Ludendorff and Adolf Hitler, leaders of the fascisti, were reported captured, the former being wounded.

General Von Lossow led two battalions in the original attack against the Bavarian war ministry building but later the troops were heavily reinforced.

Two regiments of Hitlerites (Fascisti) were ordered up to attempt to rescue Ludendorff.

Reichswehr Loyal

Advices from Wuerzburg said that the Munich Reichswehr, instead of supporting the revolters, joined with the forces of Von Knilling and Von Kahr.

An official statement was issued, based upon advices received by the government, saying that Hitler had been taken to Reichswehr headquarters. The statement said officers were hopeful Fascisti resistance soon would be broken.

Previous advices from southern Germany said the leaders of the Bavarian nationalist revolt had quarreled and that Dr. Von Kahr had withdrawn his support, ordering the arrest of both Ludendorff and Hitler.

Bavaria Isolated

The nationalist movement, whose prime object was to restore the monarchy in Bavaria, appeared on the point of collapse this afternoon. Bavaria is isolated. Federal troops have entered Munich.

The Wuerttemburg government at Stuttgart issued a proclamation saying it would oppose a

FATHER AND SON CLUB LUNCHEON

Kiwanians Foster Closer Relationship Between Parents, Boys

The Fathers' and Sons' luncheon that was held at the Tuesday Afternoon club this afternoon by the Glendale Kiwanis club proved a pronounced success and did much to foster a closer relationship and a better understanding between the parents and their boys. The youthful guests numbered close to one hundred, and those who had no son to bring with them were supplied with boys by Rex C. Kelley, of the Y. M. C. A.

The luncheon today was in line with the Father and Son movement that is being observed all over the country this week, and the insight that the boys received into the workings of Kiwanis fired the ambition of all of them to become members of the club when they grow older.

Ben F. DuPuy, city engineer, won the prize offered for the father with the most sons at the luncheon; Eugene Gordon won the prize for the oldest son present, and Jesse E. Smith captured the prize for the youngest when he paraded his nine-months-old baby before his clubmates.

Special songs, adapted to old tunes, were sung by the members and their guests, and Rev. C. M. Calderwood, pastor of the Congregational church, made a deep impression with his address on "Boys I Have Known."

The meeting next week will be held at Jensen's Egyptian Village, as the Tuesday Afternoon club will be occupied next Friday by the Society Circus.

classes from their leaders," organize soviet groups in every city of Germany and destroy the labor unions by "boring from within." He declared the communists then would support the monarchists in a revolution, "in order to destroy the moderates and socialists."

"I was told by communists in Germany and Russia that it would hasten a communistic dictatorship if a monarchy were to triumph temporarily."

Girl Is Named Head of Freshman Class

The freshmen class of the high school held a class meeting yesterday, at which the following officers were elected:

Marjorie Neilson, president; Jeannette Yarbrough, vice-president; Louise Emerick, secretary-treasurer; Lois Strother, girls' yell leader; Howard Rettberg, boy's yell leader.

Mr. Miller and Miss Elam are the faculty advisers of the class.

15 Will Be Initiated in H. S. Comites Club

This evening in the model bungalow the Comites club, the Latin club of the high school, will initiate fifteen new members from the junior class. The initiation rites will be most thrilling for the candidates. The election of officers will take place, plans for the annual banquet will be discussed, and refreshments typically Roman will be served.

Central School

D. F. Reichard gave an interesting talk on "Home Gardening" at the meeting yesterday afternoon of the Central Avenue Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. R. L. Young is president. Mr. Reichard told in an interesting manner many important things relative to planting, and cultivating vegetable and flower gardens. During his address he displayed some of the newer tools for pruning and landscape gardening. At the close of his talk he answered many questions relative to gardening.

Another interesting talk was given by Miss Annie L. McIntyre, principal of the school, on "American Educational Week." At this time she urged the mothers to visit the schools during education week from November 18 to 24. She also announced the program for the week which Glendale will present.

Two delightful numbers were given by nine members of the Girls' Glee club of the high school.

According to the count of the largest attendance of mothers the picture was awarded to Miss Alice R. Livsey's kindergarten class and Miss Elizabeth Edwards' sixth grade class was awarded the vase of flowers.

During the business session plans were inaugurated for a series of card parties to be given at the various homes as a benefit for the fund to purchase pictures and vases for the new school. Further details will be announced later.

An interesting event which occurred at the school Thursday morning and arranged by Mrs. Elsie H. Harwood, teacher of the 4th grade was the sending of greetings by pigeon messengers. Mrs. Harwood has a brother living at Fullerton who raises messenger pigeons and recently he sent thirteen pigeons to Mrs. Harwood by parcel post and yesterday the smallest pupil of each class was given one of these pigeons with a note tied to each one, "Greetings from the Central Avenue school." At exactly 10 o'clock they were put to flight. Mrs Harwood's brother is to let her know of the time of their arrival in Fullerton.

Luncheon Honoree

Charming in all its appointments was the luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. J. F. Torrey at her home, 218 West California avenue, complimenting Mrs. H M. Seaman and son, Richard, of Los Angeles. Mrs. Torrey and Mrs. Seaman are old friends of many years' standing.

An artistic color scheme of orange and white was carried out in all the decorations and luncheon table appointments.

After luncheon the guests were entertained with a motor and sight-seeing trip about Glendale. Mrs. Seaman was very much impressed with "the fastest growing city in America" and hopes to make her permanent home here.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Mary Daugherty of Hermosa Beach, Mrs. W. H. Boothby and daughter Betty, Mrs. H. M. Bennett and Mrs. Pierson Hanning of Glendale and the honorees, Mrs. H. M. Seaman and son Richard, and the hostess, Mrs. J. F. Torrey.

Birthday Dinner

Inspiration for an enjoyable affair given by Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blyth and Mrs. M. E. Blyth at their home, 126 East Garfield avenue, on Wednesday night, was the birthday anniversary of W. A. Blyth, brother of George Blyth and son of Mrs. M. E. Blyth.

A delicious birthday dinner was served and the honoree was presented with a beautiful pink and white birthday cake.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Blyth and daughter Miss Lois of Los Angeles, Mrs. M. A. Mitchell and son Fred and Miss Lucille Mitchell of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Davis of Glendale, and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Blyth and Mrs. M. E. Blyth.

Entertains Class

The members of the Lydia class of the First Presbyterian church were entertained yesterday at luncheon by Miss Jennie Horsch of Azusa, at the Community house, where she makes her home. There were more than seventy-five members present, and a most enjoyable time was had. The afternoon was spent in sewing.

Miss Horsch gave an interesting talk relative to her work among the Mexicans at Azusa. Miss Horsch is working among these people as a missionary. At the close of her talk, the members presented her with $25 for the furthering of her work.

Neighbors Meet

Mrs. H. L. Hock of the Royal Neighbors announces a meeting for 8 o'clock tonight in the K. P. hall on South Brand boulevard. It will be a social meeting and all members are urged to attend.

Spanish Luncheon

Mrs. Charles A. Rudel of 315 Vine street was hostess at a smart affair this week, when she entertained the members of the Semi-Monthly club at luncheon and five hundred at the Casa Verdugo Spanish cafe on Mountain street.

Lavender asters were used in floral decorations, and a delicious Spanish luncheon was served at 1 o'clock.

Covers were laid for Mesdames Mary O'Brien, H. M. Doll, Anna Smith, Carrie Schmidt, Peter L. Ferry, Ed Ferry, M. J. Brennan, T. J. Keleher, J. Chappius, J. G. Monahan, Miss Nell Quinn, and the hostess.

First prize was awarded Mrs. Peter L. Ferry for highest score, and second to Mrs. J. Chappius. The hostess' prize was presented to Mrs. Rudel.

Classical Study

Glendale women of the Alpha Delta Delphian chapter met in two groups yesterday to study "The Early Greek Drama and Roman Comedy," taking up "The Bird," by Aristophanes; "The Captive," by Plautus; "The Andrians," by Terrence.

Mrs. E. D. Yard of 431 North Maryland avenue, was hostess to the Ivy group with Mrs. E. W. Bolton as leader. Those taking part in the program were Mesdames C. H. Temple, W. P. Nash, S. P. Davis and Miss Martha Cox.

The Lotus group met with Mrs. Barton Manbert at 621 South Columbus avenue, with Mrs. Paul Mason as leader.

Plan for Bazaar

Mrs. A. A. Bassett, president of St. Mark's Guild, directed the meeting of the church women yesterday. It was an all-day meeting with sewing and quilting before and after the noon lunch.

Further plans were made for the bazaar and dinner Friday, November 23. The bazaar will begin in the morning and continue all day with tea served in the afternoon. At night there will be a public dinner for 200. The affair will be the formal opening of the Guild hall.

spread of the Bavarian revolution by all means.

President Ebert has issued a fresh appeal to the German people to rally to the defense of the republic. The Bavarian revolt was characterized as a "mutiny," led by a foreigner, Dr. von Hitler.

The Hitler - Ludendorf - Von Kahr coup was carried out in the face of France's solemn warning that she would not tolerate a dictatorial form of government in Germany. The Bavarians want to obtain control of the federal government, proclaiming a nationalist dictatorship for the whole country.

The government is stiffening its attitude toward France. It was understood this afternoon that if the French envoy presents Premier Poincare's note protesting against a German dictatorship, Chancellor Stresemann will reject it as "meddling in German internal affairs."

Name Beneficiaries of Welfare Chest Fund

The directors of the Glendale Welfare Chest, at their meeting last night with the heads of the various committees of the organization, made allotments in the budget that is to be raised for the following organizations:

Glendale District Y. M. C. A.; Boy Scouts of America, Verdugo Hills Council; Glendale Community Service; American Legion Auxiliary; Glendale Chapter of American War Mothers; Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross; Salvation Army; Bureau of Catholic Charities; Children's Home Society of California; Glendale Auxiliary of the Children's Hospital Society; The Christian Circle Club; Jewish Charities; and the W. C. T. U.

The entire budget to be raised for charitable and welfare work in the drive that is to be held November 19 to 24, amounts to $40,000. Practically all of the budgets sumbitted were reduced by the committee on budget and endorsement.

The campaign committee, under A. W. Tower, will meet with the precinct captains at the Chamber of Commerce tonight.

M. WERNER FINED

Michael Werner, 900 East Chestnut street, who was arrested on complaint of Inspector Sweet of the city health department, was fined $25 and sentenced to fifteen days in the county jail in police court this morning by Judge Chase for violation of Section 71 of the housing act. The jail sentence was suspended on the condition that Werner clean up the place.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAM.

A civil service examination for a clerk-carrier, male, will be held at the Glendale postoffice on December 8, 1923, according to an announcement by Postmaster D. Ripley Jackson. The requirements of the position can be ascertained by application at the postoffice, where blanks may be obtained.

MRS. WIGGS AT BURBANK

LIGHTS ON KITES GUIDE RUM CRAFT

St. Lawrence Bootleggers Aided by Confederates Working on Shore.

ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Kites carrying lights are being used to signal bootleggers by confederates living along the St. Lawrence river near here. The beacons of light far into the air are used to guide rum-running motor boats that ply between Canada and this locality.

For some time enforcement officers and customs men have been aware of the fact that the rum boats were being guided by signals from the shores, and in a couple of instances farmers have been taken into custody for signaling with lanterns the smugglers lying off the coast.

The kite scheme, however, is a new one and apparently used for the purpose of deceiving enforcement men. In the first place it is hard to tell in the depths of the night who is flying the kite, and again the speck of light in the sky looks not unlike a star Only the slight difference in color and the motion caused by the swaying of the kite in the wind shows the difference.

$5000 Swindle Laid to Pair Nabbed Here

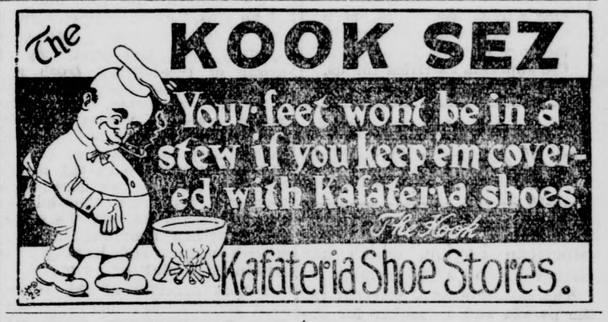
Criminals wanted in other states on serious charges have been disclosed in three recent arrests by the Glendale police department, reports Chief John D. Fraser.

J. D. Mitchell and Gordon D. Re Vley, picked up October 21 for "hi-jacking" on oil stock, and now in the Los Angeles county jail, awaiting trial by the superior court, are wanted in New Mexico on a charge of embezzlement of $5000.

Paul Talmadge, picked up October 27 for selling dishes on a $1 deposit and failing to deliver the dishes, who is now serving a fourteen-day term in the county jail, is also wanted elsewhere on a criminal charge, Chief Fraser states.

Sophomore Party at Glendale High Tonight

The G. U. H. S. sophomore party takes place tonight in the girls' gym. It will be in the form of a big movie masquerade and all the well known stars of movie land will be present. A prize will be given to the person who best impersonates the movie actor or actress which he is supposed to represent. Later in the evening the sophomores will go to the auditorium for a program, after which refreshments will be served.



BASES PHYSICAL FITNESS ON FOOD

Scientist Says Many Careers Are Ruined by Faulty Systems of Diet.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 9.—We can't be fitter than our food.

With this battle-cry Paul O. Sampson, widely known dietitian, has invaded Wichita in an effort to prevent Kansas from meeting a fate similar to Napoleon's.

Napoleon was vanquished by his appetite, according to Sampson else he would have expired on the throne of France.

"Napoleon had a treasonable appetite," Sampson said. "The story of his assassination by ground glass is untrue; he poisoned himself long before St. Helena. He was not vanquished at Waterloo, but on the table."

Get the grease and acid out of your brain, the food expert urges, explaining that good thinking cannot come from bad cooking. Knowledge of the number of careers that are spoiled on the kitchen stove is attributed to heaven alone.

Incompetence is a regular indication of when the gastric juices go wrong, according to Sampson. A cautious appetite by no means guarantees success, he says, but an unwise one certainly invites failure.

shirt him instead, which was promptly done. As Sir Cyril still showed fight, it then seemed advisable to acquaint him with the "tub of no sins." At this point many of the fair co-eds shed copious brine in his behalf, but their weeping and wailing was lost on the calloused hearts of the sophs, who had their will of their victim.

Enraged at this brutal lynching, the freshmen are reported to be organizing a posse and will search the hills tonight for the leader of the gang, one Captain John or "Tony" Spangler, who is understood to be in hiding somewhere about the gridiron.

Building in Glendale
Armistice, Thanksgiving
America's National Disgrace
Scissors and Paste

By Gil A. Cowan

New hospital, new hotel, both announced same day—yesterday—in Glendale. That ought to stir building activity here, and if the promoters of two other hotels will please rush in the permits prior to the first of the year this city will have no trouble in going over the ten million mark in structural permits.

Most of all, however, Glendale needs homes and more homes. This is the ONE home city of southern California. And the more home owners the more business there will be. Business establishments, as well as hotels and apartment houses, need sewer connections. Now that means Glendale must have a sewage disposal system. It is to be voted January 8, 1924.

Armistice day and Thanksgiving are on November's calendar. Armistice day comes on Sunday. Monday will be the day for celebration. The American Legion, as well as other patriotic bodies, are planning a parade which will be a neighborly affair. Eagle Rock and Tujunga are invited.

To the veterans of the World war Armistice day means much. It spelled the defeat of German militarism. It brought a bumptious nation to the realization that might cannot make right, that freedom and justice are paramount to all other issues.

On the fifth anniversary of the armistice the world finds Germany drinking of the dregs of defeat. The wheels of justice turn slowly, but surely.

The Santa Ana Register says relative to the present investigation of the Veterans' bureau at Washington:

"There's hardly an offense against the people of the United States more contemptible than the crime of grafting money set aside to care for America's wounded veterans. It should be classed as treason, punishable with death. There is no room on earth for a thief so low that he would rob men suffering from war-time disabilities. He should be put out of the way permanently.

"This offense has been committed. Millions of dollars appropriated for disabled veterans' welfare has been wasted—wasted criminally—spent in what to all intents and purposes, is certainly graft. A senate committee is now trying to find out who took part in this orgy of embezzlement.

"Read carefully everything that is published on this inquiry. Remember names. Remember the testimony. It isn't pleasant reading but it's the duty of every good citizen to do it.

"Don't condemn anybody now. But when the inquiry is closed, insist that the guilty be punished. Don't stand for any 'whitewash.' You are only one citizen—but do your duty in this matter and trust that the other 110,000,000 will add their voices to America's cry for justice on these contemptible thieves."

Here are the results of scissors and paste:

Pays $54 for Famous Old Budapest Palace

BUDAPEST, Nov. 9. — Fifty four dollars was the price the Frankfort General Insurance Company paid for the palace of Count Batthany in this city. The palace is a copy of the famous Palazzo Strozzi.

During the Bolshevik revolution the palace had been requisitioned and made the headquarters of one of the red government's departments. After the termination of the Bolshevik administration the count did not care to use the palace again and sold it for 20,000,000 marks to the insurance company. The price of 100 marks at that time was $1.50. The buying company borrowed the money and paid only the interest. Now that the mark is almost worthless, the company paid its debt, which on that day amounted to the equivalent of $54.

Tennessee Woman, 94, Has 250 Descendants

SELMER, Tenn., Nov. 9. — With a cheerful disposition and a good appetite, Mrs. L. R. Littlefield celebrated her 94th birthday at her home in Adamsville, near here, the other day, and proudly boasted of her 250 descendants. She has 10 children, 69 grandchildren, 151 great-grandchildren and 20 great-great-grandchildren, and has lived to see five generations of her family hurled into various occupations and activities of life, fighting for supremacy. She attributes her lengthy life to devout religious inclinations and her love for outdoor living.

Iowa Claims Lead in Corn and Hog Output

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 9.—The supremacy of Iowa over the world in hog raising and corn growing is strikingly shown in a report prepared by the Iowa Weather and Crop Service here. There were more than 10,000,000 hogs on Iowa farms the first of this year, the diagram shows, or more than any other two states in the Union. Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska and Indiana follow Iowa's lead in hog raising, each being cited with more than 4,000,000 hogs. Ohio had a hog population of 3,000,000, with Kansas the next ranking state.

Last year Iowa's corn crop, according to the bulletin, totaled more than 450,000,000 bushels, Illinois, the next state, being credited with slightly more than 300,000,000 bushels, and Nebraska, the third state, produced approximately 175,000,000 bushels.

Keokuk Places Ban On Curbstone Moron

KEOKUK, Iowa, Nov. 9.—Curbstone morons must go, according to the edict of Chief of Police McPherson.

Although this is no metropolis, the youth of the town have city ways. They insist on taking young flappers for joy rides without first being properly introduced.

In Keokuk proper introduction is a social prerequisite.

Hence several male vamps, termed "curbstone morons" by the police, are languishing in jail to pay for their social errors.

SEPTEMBER TRADE SHOWS REDUCTION

Federal Reserve Bank Report Shows Smallest Monthly Volume

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9. — Large production in the principal industries of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District and wide distribution of goods at wholesale and retail during September, were offset by declines in other business activities, so that the total volume of trade in the district, as measured by debits to bank accounts, was smaller during September than in any previous month of 1923, it is reported by John Perrin, Chairman of the Board and Federal Reserve Agent.

Business continued, however, ten per cent in excess of September, 1922, when the volume of trade was large and increasing.

Interest rates to customers of large city banks in the district are unchanged. From 5½ per cent in San Francisco to 7 per cent in Portland, Seattle, Salt Lake City and Spokane.

Lumbermen Busy

Capacity operation is reported in the lumber industry during September. Orders received and shipments made during the month increased until at its close new business was in excess of production, this being the first time such a condition has existed since April, 1923.

Daily average production of petroleum in California was greater by 6,000 barrels or 0.7 per cent during September than during August. Consumption increased ten per cent during the same period. Present prices for this product are but 20 per cent above the pre-war level, compared with 50 per cent for wholesale prices in general.

The number and value of building permits issued in 20 cities of the district declined seasonally in September, but building permits issued in 20 cities of the district declined seasonally in September, but building continues unusually active in all sections.

Crops Harvested

Harvesting is moving toward completion under generally favorable conditions and livestock is reported to be thriving. Transportation conditions are improved greatly over last year, but the height of the grape shipping season finds California producers handicapped somewhat by shortage of refrigerator cars. Relatively low prices for 1923 crop of canned and dried fruits have stimulated demand.

Trade at retail reported by 35 department stores is 10.9 per cent greater in value during September, 1923, than during September, 1922. There was but little change in wholesale trade, five of the eleven reporting lines showing a moderate increase in value of sales as compared with August and six small decreases. Business failures were less in number and liabilities than in August, 1923, or September, 1922.

Wife Who Failed to Duck Gets Black Eye

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—"If I don't duck I get hit," Mrs. Dorothy Siekbert explained in Judge Woeste's court the other day. Her husband was on trial charged with striking her.

Mrs. Siekbert had failed to make a "good duck" and was wearing a black eye as a result.

"Are you guilty of giving your wife a black eye?" the prosecutor asked Siekbert.

"Yes, she failed to duck," Siekbert repied.

"Sometimes I can't duck. This was one of those times," Mrs. Siekbert interjected.

Judge Woeste gave the husband 90 days in the workhouse in order that Mrs. Siekbert might have time to practice "ducking."

Alabama Cop Shoots Speeders' Tires Off

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 9.—It takes just exactly a shot a mile for eleven miles for Detective Probst, of the Birmingham police force, to rip the four tires from a flivver that is being driven at the rate of fifty-two miles an hour.

This fact was proven here recently when Detective Propst started out to capture Cornelius Cummings, a negro, who had over-indulged in Alabama "corn." The race was a "hot one" and led through the city streets and out into the rural district. But Propst took off a tire every two and one-half miles, and when the eleven miles were covered the four tires were scattered along the roadside, the negro's flivver automatically stopped, and the detective got his man. Cummings was given six months in jail.

Ten million bushels of corn passed westward through Vancouver, B. C., last year, much of it for transportation through the Panama Canal.

Unemployment to Test Mussolini, Is Belief

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 9.—The unemployment problem in Italy is expected to determine the fate of Premier Mussolini this Winter, according to Professor Henry R. Spencer, Ohio State University, recently returned from a three-months' visit in Rome.

Whether Italy will be torn with revolution and chaos, or whether the new Caesar at Rome will attain his political aspirations, as a result of his dictatorship, will be decided within the next few months, is Spencer's opinion.

Although there is no open opposition to Mussolini now, embers of revolt are smoldering beneath an apparently quiet surface, said Spencer.

Gas Price Fluctuates Like German Marks

MARTIN'S FERRY, Ohio, Nov. 9.—Gasoline prices fell so quickly that John D. Rockefeller's service station here had to use cardboard to post the prices. Formerly the price was carried on a neatly painted metal disc. Changes recently were so rapid that, for several days, until the paint on the metal could have time to dry, cardboard was used.

Favor Rafts in Lieu Of Usual Lifeboats

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Substitution of rafts for lifeboats on liners is now under consideration by the board of trade here, a body that has the control of all regulations concerning the safety of lives at sea.

Advocates of the raft claim that it has many advantages over the lifeboat. More of them, it is urged, can be carried in less space and launching is much easier.

ARMISTICE DAY PLANS ARE TOLD

Honor for Heroes of War Will Be Paid by American Legion

by the local post. Starting time for the parade is fixed at 10 o'clock.

Athletic Program

In the afternoon there will be a pushball game, followed by a football game between Glendale and Van Nuys, on Moyse field.

A special effort is being made in behalf of the dance to be given in the clubhouse of the Tuesday Afternoon club in the evening. Every Legion member is urged to attend, and others are cordially invited. A special ten-piece orchestra under the direction of Don Campbell, of radio fame, will furnish the music, and several feature dances are being arranged. Leroy Fortier, chairman of the Legion dance committee, is sparing no effort to make this event the culmination of a gala day's celebration.

Commander's Appeal

The text of Commander Day's appeal for the closing of stores and the proper observance of the day is as follows:

Armistice Day, or a day set aside for the celebration of the same, is one very real to the heart of every true and loyal American citizen. If that day means nothing to an individual, then that individual cannot have true regard for the ideals and privileges which an American citizenship bestows.

To every man and woman who filled that long lane from the trench to the training camp the day is intensely full of meaning. That first Armistice Day meant to them a life and loved ones. That lane of uniforms could not have existed or reached its objective without the assistance of those noble Americans who wore no uniform. As it was then a day of extreme personal joy, so may it now be a day of extreme personal pride. It is not enough that the day be observed by ex-service men and women; it is not alone their day, but it is the day of every living American.

Asks Firms to Close

Many organizations in the city have taken action looking to the closing of the places of business of their particular constituency the entire day of November 12. Outside of restaurants, pharmacies and the press, there are very few business houses which cannot follow such a lead, and they are earnestly requested to do so.

May every individual, in this manner at least, voluntarily observe the accomplishments of our own free nation and its allies rather than by their actions intimate they would rather have had the forced observance of the success of selfish ambitions born in the mind of an autocratic monarch.

CHALMER D. DAY
Sr. Commander
Glendale Post, 127,
American Legion.

High School Hears About Veterans' Relief

"Any one not actively engaged in the work has but little idea of the magnitude of the task before us," said K. J. Scudder, head of the veterans' bureau of Los Angeles, in an address before the students of the Glendale Union High school this noon. Mr. Scudder appeared at the request of Principal George U. Moyse and Chalmer D. Day, commander of the local post of the American Legion.

"Our yearly expenditure in Los Angeles alone is upwards of $5,000,000, and of this amount less than 5 per cent goes toward paying the salaries of the office staff. Ninety-five per cent goes to compensation, vocational training and rehabilitation."

The necessity of the proper observance of Armistice day was stressed by Mr. Scudder, who stated that it was a duty every 100 per cent American owed to his country and the men who fought in the recent war.

Gives Facts and Figures

In touching upon the activities of the veterans' bureau, he said that a total of 665,800 had applied for vocational training. Of this number 327,800 had been found eligible, and that 169,200 had completed their training or were going to school at this time. There are waiting for training 73,000 men who served their country in the recent war. He pointed out that the bureau was doing a great work by training a man for a specific job, and the education offered was not a general one. In this manner a graduate of the school can immediately step into a position as a specialist, fully qualified in the line that he elected to take up. In addition to the training work, 47,000 men have been rehabilitated, that is, positions have been found for them which in most instances have been better than the ones they occupied before the war.

The high school orchestra gave several selections, and the assembly closed with the singing of America.

Cure Reported for Sleeping Sickness

JOHANNESBURGH, Nov. 9.—Successful experiments in treatment for sleeping sickness have been carried out by Professors Klein and Fischer, two German scientists, over a period of twelve months here and in Northern Congo.

The cure is usually effected after three injections through the skin with the Bayer 205 treatment and eminent doctors state that there is no doubt regarding the efficacy of the discovery.

Millions of Medals for British Veterans

LONDON, Nov. 9.—British ex-service men and soldiers and sailors still in the forces must be carrying tons of metal on their breasts, for, according to the war office, no fewer than 13,158,964 medals for service in the world war have now been distributed.

HOLLYWOOD HOME SELL OR TRADE FOR GLENDALE RESIDENCE

An opportunity for someone who wishes to live in Hollywood to trade their Glendale property for this almost new 6 room home and garage in Hollywood. Located centrally. Price $7950.00 or $8750.00 furnished. The property is now rented for $100.00 per month. Your Glendale property must be priced right as the owner now owns his residence here and his only reason for trading is to concentrate his holdings in Glendale on account of having himself established in his profession here. Our client's equity is about $4000.00 and he would like about $500 to $1000 cash.

CROP CONDITIONS FAVOR SOUTHWEST

Prosperity Due Directly to General Activity, Says Rail Executive

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 9.—The era of prosperity being enjoyed in the Southwest is due directly to the good condition of crops and markets, according to Edwin Gould, of New York, chairman of the board of directors of the St. Louis Southwestern Railroad. Gould is touring Texas in the interests of his carrier.

"With the splendid crop condition, the high price of cotton, stimulated lumber trade and general business activity, prosperity should contniue indefinitely," Gould said. "This especially is true of the southern Texas area."

Many improvements in the physical properties of the Cotton Belt system, subsidiary of the St. Louis Southwestern Line, were promised by Gould, including conversion of all coal-burning locomotives into the oil-burning type.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL WORK IS RUSHED

Board Hears Reports From Builders and Declares Armistice Holiday

Much business incident to the completion of the new High school building was transacted at the regular meeting of the board last night. Reports were made which showed that work is progressing as rapidly as could be expected.

The board declared Monday, November 12, Armistice day, a school holiday so that the students might participate in the parade, and accepted an invitation from the committee in charge of the celebration to appear in the parade themselves.

In the awarding of the contract for the lighting fixtures for the new building, the contract was divided. The Schweitzer & Alexander company of Los Angeles will furnish the fixtures that need to be especially built, such as those in the auditorium, front corridor and those outside in the main entrance. Their work calls for an expenditure of $1450.

Other Bids

The J. A. Newton Electric company of Glendale was awarded the contract for the installation of the remainder of the lights in the class rooms. The contract price was $4389.95.

Four bids which had been submitted for the furnishings of the stage in the auditorium, including front curtain, hangings at wings, were opened. Each bidder had been given the option to submit an alternate design for the fittings in addition to that prescribed by the architect. It was found that there was not much difference in price, but a great variety in design. The matter was referred to a committee, to be reported back at an adjourned meeting to be held next Tuesday evening, November 13, at 6 o'clock. Work is to be rushed with all possible speed in order that it may be completed for the variety show to be given on the nights of December 13 and 14.

Check Up Restaurant

The bids submitted for the furnishings for the restaurant in the new building were left to Business Manager Oliver to check over.

John C. Austin, one of the architects in charge of the erection of the building, submitted his plans for the landscape work and athletic field grades. These were gone over in detail and definite action on these matters will be taken at a later meeting.

12-Game Box Seat Tickets Put on Sale

Season box tickets for the new park at San Fernando road and Park avenue, which will house the Triple A league went on sale yesterday, according to Manager Frank A. Kerwin of the Glendale team.

"Mickey" O'Brien, catcher for the Philadelphia Nationals, who will receive for the local team this winter, is in charge of the sale. He states that he has met with a ready response, and the officials are greatly encouraged by the results of their efforts.

The price of the tickets is $9, and they entitle the holder to admission to the first twelve games played at the local park. Persons who possess these tickets will not be caused the inconvenience of standing in line at the admission gate in order to get a reserved seat.

The cost of the new plant has been more than double the original estimate furnished the promoters, and this method is being employed to raise immediate funds.

The first game of the season will be with the Palms-Culver City outfit at their grounds. The local season opens November 25. The complete schedule will soon be ready for publication, as a result of the final meeting held this week in Los Angeles.

Rev. John H. Troy Dies in New Jersey

News of the death of the Rev. John Henry Troy, former pastor of the First Baptist church here, has been received by Mrs. Merritt Adams of 322 East Stocker street, Glendale. For the last few years Rev. Troy had been a Bible teacher in New York City and passed away at Asbury Park, N. J., according to the meager information received here.

During his pastorate here ten years ago, Rev. Troy made many friends who will sorrowfully learn of his death. Like his father, he was a noted Bible student and brought many outside of the faith to Christian belief by his magnetic personality.

Rev. Troy is survived by a widow and three sons.

Thirty Kiddies Enjoy Party at Woods Home

Thirty children were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Nanno Woods and her daughters, Dorothy and Kathleen, with a popcorn party. After many novel games were played the children were seated on the floor in a large circle and each one provided with a quantity of popcorn, a darning needle and strong thread. Prizes were awarded to the children having the longest string of popcorn.

Prizes of beautiful bracelets were also presented to Edith Kelty and Ruth Fakler as rewards for selling the greatest number of tickets for "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." The little guests were then served with delicious buttered popcorn.

Caseys Meet Van Nuys Here in Valley League

The Glendale K. C. team, local entry in the San Fernando valley winter league, will show their stuff again Sunday at San Fernando road and Park avenue, when they take on the Van Nuys aggregation. This is their second game of the regular schedule.

Although the Caseys lost their first game Sunday to the hard-hitting Lankershim aggregation, several of the weak spots have been strengthened, in an effort to pull out with the long end of the score. Van Nuys has a strong team, and will make the locals hustle to win.

The game will be called at 2:30, and another large crowd will undoubtedly be on hand.

WILL LOCATE HERE

Mrs. Margaret Ogle, who, with her two sons, Lawrence and Walter, arrived on Sunday from Springfield, Ohio, will make their home in Glendale. They are the guests of Mrs. Ogie's daughter, Mrs. Harry Blumenthal, at 722 North Central avenue.

MEMORIAL WILL HONOR HARDING

Association Opens National Headquarters in Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The Harding Memorial association, recently incorporated under the laws of Ohio, for the purpose of providing a suitable depository for the remains of the late president, and to perpetuate his homestead at Marion, Ohio, as a shrine for housing the mementoes of his long public service, has opened national headquarters at 1414 F street, N. W., and is perfecting a nationwide organization for carrying out its plan.

Announcement was made today that Harding Memorial Week will be observed throughout the country from December 9 to 16. During this period exercises and services of many kinds will be held commemorative of Mr. Harding's life as president and citizen. The children are to have a special chance to participate because of the place they held in the late president's affection. During this memorial week those who so desire will have opportunity to become associate members of the association.

Coolidge Heads Board

President Coolidge heads the association's board of trustees. Other members are: Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of War John W. Weeks, Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty, Postmaster General Harry S. New, Secretary of the Navy Edwin Denby, Secretary of the Interior Hubert Work, Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, Governor of the Federal Reserve Board D. R. Crissinger, Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Gen. Charles E. Sawyer, Gen. Charles G. Dawes, E. B. McLean, John Barton Payne, Fred W. Upham, John Hays Hammond, George B. Christian, Jr.; Hoke Donithen and J. W. Prendergast.

Senator Frelinghuysen is acting president of the association; John Hays Hammond, first vice-president; John Barton Payne second vice-president; George B. Christensen, Jr., secretary, and Secretary Mellon, treasurer.

Will Endow Home

The association has in mind a modest, but appropriate, memorial for the late president in his home town of Marion. The exact size is to be selected by a committee which will include Mrs. Harding. Sufficient funds will be provided as an endowment for its perpetual care and upkeep.

A second form of the memorial will be the permanent endowment of the Harding home on Mt. Vernon avenue, Marion, the front porch of which became internationaliy famous in the campaign that preceded Mr. Harding's election to the presidency in 1920. Fully one-quarter of a million people visited there during that period, and since his death in San Francisco, on August 2, there have been approximately 30,000 visitors.

Fun for Everyone at Armistice Day Social

Just to cater to everyone's taste, the committee in charge of the big Armistice Day social event Monday night, at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, has arranged for tables for card games. This will afford entertainment for those not caring to dance.

Glendale Legionnaires are to be hosts, and Leroy Fortier, chairman of the dance committee, promises all attending a fine time.

Dance music will be furnished by Don Campbell's seven-piece jazz orchestra of radioland fame. Members of the orchestra are Miss Ullman, piano; M. S. Hunter, violin; Don Campbell, first saxophone; Bob Fochler, second saxophone; Ralph Foy, trumpet; C. S. Richardson, trombone; V. S. Neville, banjo; Warren Alby, Sousaphone; Margeurite Campbell, drums.

C. of C. Nominations Will Close on Nov. 10

Nominating petitions for directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce must be filed with the secretary, E. F. Sanders, by Saturday, November 10, in order that the names of the nominees may be placed on the ballots that will be sent out, it is announced this morning. The nominations will be closed tomorrow night because of the fact that Monday, November 12, will be a legal holiday.

It is pointed out by Secretary Sanders that the signers of the petitions must be in good standing and must have their dues paid up till November. Otherwise, he declares, the petitions are rendered void, and such persons who are behind in the payment of their dues will not have the right to vote in the election.

Mexican Police Nab Load of Munitions

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 9.—Mounted police seized a truck filled with arms, munitions and machine guns outside the city limits near Chapultepec castle, it was learned yesterday.

A member of the corporationists party was arrested with the driver.

Investigation revealed that the munitions were purchased by a former army officer.

Confronted with a serious task to do your level best. Just push your good intentions through and patience does the rest.

MONTROSE

BUSINESS COMES SECOND AT MEET

C. of C. Holds Open House at Entertainment Staged in New School Building

Business was curtailed by the Montrose Chamber of Commerce at the regular meeting to allow the members and friends present to enjoy a social evening and an entertainment arranged by the entertainment committee.

Reports were made by the committees on roads, publicity and gas service.

F. W. Plaisted, former governor of Maine, was introduced and spoke of his satisfaction in finding the Verdugo hills, terming them the "beauty spot of the world."

Civic Center

Citizens present were welcomed to the new schoolhouse and invited to use it for all civic gatherings by A. W. Blanford, principal of the La Crescenta school, and C. J. Reinhard, member of the board of trustees of the Montrose district.

Mr. Blanford expressed the opinion that the time is not far distant when additional units will be needed to accommodate the increasing attendance at the schools.

Dr. Marion Tracy Whiting of Los Angeles, national community singing director and member of the National Bureau of Community Service, conducted community singing as one feature of the program. Dr. Whiting is one of the many who continually delight radio listeners with programs presented from KFI.

The program included the following numbers: Soprano solo, Mrs. W. Reed, accompanied by Mrs. Eccleston with violin obligato by Mr. Reed; violin solo, Mr. Reed; readings by Mrs. Evelyn Pierce; bass solo, Mr. Eccleston; piano solo, Mrs. Eccleston, and a solo by A. F. Craft. Mercy Jane Hopkins was flower girl and presented flowers to the entertainers.

Slogan Is Adopted

The slogans entered in the contest for a slogan for Montrose were passed upon by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Eldine E. Gordon won the $5 prize offered by Theo. Belanger. Her slogan was "Montrose, Gem of the Green Verdugos." A large number of slogans were sent in and all had merit. This one was chosen as the best fitted to the town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Craft of the Blue Bird cafe served coffee and cake.

Merger Plan Tabled

Incorporation of Montrose and La Crescenta has been tabled for the time being as a result of a test vote taken by the La Crescenta Improvement association at the recent meeting of that organization. La Crescenta is opposed to the merger plan by a large majority, according to this vote.

A dance will be given in the La Crescenta school auditorium by the Montrose Chamber of Commerce Saturday evening. Fletcher's orchestra has been engaged.

Permits Pass $200,000 Mark in November

Another milestone for November was passed yesterday, when building permits issued at the city hall passed the $200,000 mark. The exact amount last night was $202,499.

This brought the yearly total to nearly one-third of the way between the $8,000,000 and $9,000,000 mark, or $8,313,936. There is no evidence of any slackening in the activity.

The following permits were issued yesterday:

Joy A. Robertson, garage, 325 West Cerritos	$ 7,500
Dick Michel, 5 rooms and garage, 1058 Thompson	4,000
Dick Michel, 5 rooms and garage, 1054 Thompson	4,000

POSTMASTER 44 YEARS

HINTON, W. Va., Nov. 9.—D. G. Ballengee, 78, one of the oldest postmasters in West Virginia, believes he holds the State record for service as such. He has been postmaster at Clayton, this county, continuously for the last 44 years. Although he walks with the aid of a cane he is active and looks 20 years younger than his real age.

Mating of Defectives Opposed by Doctor

"Prevention of mating between defectives is the most practical answer to the crime problem," declared Dr. H. G. Brainerd of Los Angeles, before last night's meeting of the Glendale Physicians' club at the Glendale Union High school.

"Experimental studies in heredity from the monk Mendel's time to that of our own Luther Burbank show that both animals and plants can be made better or worse in succeeding generations, according to the mating of strong or weak strains.

"With over 1000 mental defectives on parole in Los Angeles county at the present time, because of the overcrowded conditions of jails and hospitals, the problem is becoming acute. Feeblemindedness and insanity are both dominant characteristics and if two are mated with these strains, the offspring show a high percentage of mental defectives, from which spring largely our criminal classes.

"Intelligence in animals and human beings is greater or less, according to the ancestry of the individual. Out of 5,750,000 men drafted during the war, 1,225,000 were physically or mentally defective and should not be permitted to reproduce their kind, if we are to cut down the present appalling crime condition and improve the race."

Last night's meeting of the Glendale Physicians' club was presided over by Dr. F. M. Rossiter, president.

they came across the Mojave desert.

All along the line, he distributed Glendale literature furnished by the Chamber of Commerce, answering questions innumerable and selling the city as he went.

"If a lot of folks I talked to don't follow that electric locomotive here this winter," says Mr. Nagel, "I miss my guess!"

Why insinuate when under the same breath you may speak outright.

THEATRES

THE GLENDALE

"If Winter Comes" is at the Glendale Theatre for the last times today and those who have not yet seen this mighty screen version of the popular Hutchinson novel will surely be missing something if they don't see it, according to Manager William A. Howe.

One year was spent in England by Harry Millarde and his company of William Fox players, making this production. The result is one of the outstanding films not only of this year but any year. Percy Marmont, in the role of Mark Sabre, is a character one will never forget, and Ann Forrest has at last found herself and risen to the heights. Her future is, indeed, roseate.

Not to see "If Winter Comes" is like missing the world's series or staying home from the circus. One doesn't miss pictures like this. It has made attendance records at the Glendale this week.

Sewer Committees to Meet With Council

The City Council and the sewer committee, together with the heads of subordinate committees, will meet Saturday morning at the Chamber of Commerce rooms to discuss further the problems that were raised at the meeting held earlier in the week. Chester A. Smith, the enginer for Burns & McDonnell, who is compiling data on the proposed sewer system, will be present to advise with the officials.

NEW CAFE OPENS HERE TOMORROW

Glendale Country Club Will Attract Many Elite Restaurant Patrons

The Glendale Country club, a new cafe at 1120 South San Fernando road, will have its formal opening Saturday evening of this week in one of the city's fine homes under the proprietorship of William Schneider and Harry Devine.

This new restaurant is announced as a place of refinement which will give Glendale a dining place second to none in southern California. Dancing will be featured with a fine orchestra, playing every evening, and it is expected this cafe will become the rendezvous of the elite of Los Angeles.

Close proximity to Hollywood and Pasadena arteries of traffic, as well as being near the heart of Los Angeles, assure Glendale Country club almost immediate success, according to Mr. Schneider, who is an experienced restaurateur.

In 1892 he opened the Palace cafe in Los Angeles. In 1904 he established Cafe Bristol, and in 1907 he opened Bristol Pier at Ocean Park. Mr. Devine, likewise has been engaged in the restaurant business for years, first in San Diego and later in Los Angeles, where he was proprietor

PROPOSE CHANGE IN BUS ROUTING

Traffic Congestion Demands Relief on City Streets, Council Claim

In common with the governing bodies of other cities which have enjoyed phenomenal growth, the City Council of Glendale is compelled to turn its attention to the relief of traffic congestion on the downtown streets, and two measures with this end in view were discussed last night.

One resolution, presented by City Manager W. H. Reeves, at the request and with the approval of Chief of Police J. D. Fraser and the traffic manager of the Pacific Electric railway, changes the routing of the crosstown busses operated by the Pacific Electric in Glendale.

To avoid congestion on the east side of Broadway at Brand boulevard the busses will not, for a trial period of two weeks, discharge passengers at this point, but will go west on Broadway to Orange, south on Orange to Harvard, east on Harvard to Brand and north on Brand to Broadway, making their station on the east side of Brand boulevard, in front of the building now occupied by the Security Trust & Savings bank. This is the only change contemplated at this time, otherwise the routings will remain the same. This applies to each one of

Hospital Gets Permit for Laurel Street Location

As forecasted in yesterday's issue of The Evening News, the council last evening granted a corporation composed of five local men permission to erect a new hospital on the north side of Laurel street between Brand boulevard and Central avenue.

The building, work on which is to be started at once, will cost in the neighborhood of $250,000 and will be modern in every way. The incorporators are Doctors H. R. Boyer, J. E. Eckles, H. V. Brown and O. A. Dietrich; with O. W. Tarr as associate.

Some opposition to the granting of the permit developed from property owners in this locality, but, as the site designated is in a commercial district, and the applicants were complying with the law, the members of the city council stated that they had no option in the matter, and on roll call, the vote was unanimous in favor of granting the permit.

CIRCUS COMING

The city council last evening granted the Golden Bros. circus permission to show in Glendale one day, Thursday, November 15. Their representative stated they would show at the corner of San Fernando Road and Park avenue.

64 ACTIVITIES AT OXY THIS YEAR

Something to Keep Everyone Busy, All Hours of Livelong Day

By LARRY RAYMOND
Written for The Evening News

The question has been asked: How many different organizations are there at Occidental college? The answer is easy, as there are sixty-four separate organizations at the present time, each with its own ideals and standards, doing its respective work silently and unnoticed, except for the three or four large student body organizations. Each and every one of these groups has one outstanding purpose above all others—that of making Occidental greater.

All have an important part in furthering the high ideals of the institution, and are aiding the college in one way or another. The president, Dr. R. D. Bird, is the big factor at Occidental. His great executive ability makes him a man to be admired and loved by all the students. The group of trustees is an essential part of the college. Then the faculty of some forty or more professors puts Oxy foremost in education.

List of Activities

The list of the Occidental college social, athletic, religious and educational organization is as follows: Trustees, faculty, post graduate class, specials, senior class, juniors, sophomores, freshmen, Delta sorority, Alpha sorority, Beta Phi sorority, Gamma sorority, Chi Rho fraternity, O M. A. fraternity, Sigma fraternity, Owl and Key fraternity; house clubs, Kalameras, Casa de Colina, Kenawans; James Swall Hall dormitory, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Student Volunteers, Home Recruits, Associated Students of Occidental College, Associated Women Students, the Tribunal, the Alumni association, Women's "O" club, Occidental Men's "O" club, Associated Students' bank, Student Employment service, Hangchow group, "The Occidental" newspaper, La Encina year book, frosh hand book staff, forensics, Tau Kappa Alpha national honorary debating fraternity, women's forensics, Theta Alpha Phi national dramatics society, men's glee club, women's glee club, Rifle club, Press club, Daubers, Theta Pre-Medics society, Pi Epsilon Pre-Engineering society, Burke Economics club, Arden Dramatics, Spanish club, French club, Laurean Literary society, Lowell Literary society, Student Fellowship group, football, Basketball, track, tennis, baseball, cross-country, chess club.

Adventist Elder to Lecture on Europe

Elder L. H. Christian, vice-president of the General Conference of Europe of the Seventh Day Adventist denomination, who has been in attendance at the autumn conference at Milwaukee, Wis., is now in Southern California, and will speak at 10:45 o'clock Saturday morning at the church at North Isabel street and Wilson avenue.

His subject will be "Conditions and Experiences in Europe." He has toured all parts of Europe and Asia and is familiar with foreign problems and conditions.

Petition for Lights Requires More Names

The petition presented to the City Council requesting an ornamental street lighting system on West Broadway between Central avenue and San Fernando road, was returned to the petitioners last night in order that they might obtain the signatures of the necessary percentage of property owners in the district affected.

As presented, the petition carried the names of only 49.1 per cent, whereas the law requires that at least 51 per cent of the property owners sign the petition.

REPORTS CAR THEFT

C. E. Percy, 345 North Cedar street, reported to the police last night that his Chevrolet car, license No. 74920, had been stolen from in front of the Lawson building, between 7 and 9 o'clock p. m. Detective Sergeant Blake and Sergeant Lauritzen were detailed on the case.

WILL ESTABLISH GLENDALE CLINIC

Council Adopts Ordinance to Provide Medical Care for City's Indigent

The city council last evening unanimously adopted an ordinance establishing a clinic and dispensary, to be operated under the supervision of the city health officer, for indigent residents of this city.

It provides that a fee of 10 cents shall be charged, and if medicine or drugs enter into the treatment prescribed, these shall be furnished to the patient at a price not to exceed over 10 per cent of the actual cost of the same.

The minimum fee for operations is fixed at $2.50, with a maximum charge of $10.

The city health officer has not worked out the details completely yet, and announcement will be made as soon as this is accomplished.

Varied Program Marks Christian Club Meet

The Christian Circle club meeting last night proved to be one of the most enjoyable held this year. A delicious dinner was served by the women of the Christian church at 6:30 o'clock, which was followed by an interesting program.

Special guests of the circle included members of the women's societies of the various churches, and several pastors and their wives.

The program consisted of two delightful duets by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cotton, messages of greeting from Mrs. Marple, member of the executive committee; Miss Helen Robinson, president of the club, and an address by Rev. J. C. Livingston, president of the Ministerial association.

Miss Maude Soper, who has been the teacher and director of the club for the past two and a half years, has resigned, and at the affair last night introduced Mrs. Neth, who will be the leader during the coming months. Mrs. Neth closed the meeting with a very pleasing talk.

Offers Amendment to Parking Ordinance

An amendment to the new ordinance relative to the parking of cars in the business section of the city was offered to the city council last night by Councilman Davis.

It provides that on all of Brand boulevard south of Garfield street and on San Fernando road south of Los Feliz road cars shall be parked parallel to the curb, and not diagonally in the street, as they are at present. The object of the amendment is to provide more room for cars going north and south.

Subdue Awkward Fire in Apartment House

Fire, discovered at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, in an apartment house at 123 West Cerritos street, owned by T. W. Caroll, damaged the building to the extent of five hundred dollars.

The fire resulted from an overheated water-heater on the second floor, and broke out near the roof. It was a very awkward place and required one hour's work by the fire depratment before it was reported out.

Helps Newcomer Find Glendale Residence

Mrs. Stella Goodman reports assisting John W. Dickerson and family, formerly of Lincoln, Cal., to locate in a comfortable home at 3843 Boice avenue. Mr. Dickerson is an experienced moulder, and is credited with much of the fine moulding in the Biltmore hotel recently completed in Los Angeles, where he has been living for a time. He is now associated with the Tropico Potteries.

Weak Mind, Vivid Imagination Of Prof. Zantippe Discovers Bridge Over Los Angeles River

Professor Xavius Zantippe, a man of weak mind and strong imagination, has rung the bell again, hit the bull's eye, scored 100, in fact, done not at all badly, considering everything; and while his friends regret that he couldn't have done better and are deeply disappointed, they feel the best thing to do now is to hush it all up and therefore they have given it to the papers.

It seems that while trolling for tripe in the Los Angeles river basin, one Tuesday in the middle of last Monday, the learned professor became consumed with the desire to cross the raging torrent. Casting his eyes about, he hurled one of them at what appeared to be the horizon.

Greatly to his astonishment, it bounced back. Now when an eye hurled at the horizon bounces back, and forthwith at that, mused Professor Zantippe, it is a subject for scientific research. So with a catch of his breath and a hitch of his suspenders, he advanced to the horizon and touched it fearsomely.

His Eyes Roll Downstairs

It touched back. In other words, it was. Now when a horizon is, the professor mused, it must be. He therefore cast his eyes up it for a means of ascent. They rolled back down a natural stairway, whereupon Professor Zantippe mounted the stairway and rode up.

Arrived at the top, he found himself on a natural bridge crossing the Los Angeles river. In triumph he surveyed the scene. From where he stood, he could see the San Fernando valley, the San Joaquin valley, the Imperial valley, the Mississippi and several other valleys not omitting the Hudson.

It was an inspiring sight and made the learned professor feel like stout Cortez "Silent upon a peak in Darien" as he first beheld the Pacific. Unfortunately, just at this point a suspender button gave way under the strain and in the crisis that followed, Professor Zantippe lost his balance and fell off the horizon.

Lands in Los Angeles River

With a loud splash he landed in the Los Angeles river. When he emerged, perspiring freely, the learned professor at once called a taxi and dashed to the telegraph office, where he sent a fast wire to the Smithsonian institution. The answer came back from the psychiatric department, requesting a specimen—not of the bridge but of Professor Zantippe's gray matter.

This so angered the professor that he declared he would claim the bridge for Glendale. Upon returning to the spot, however, he found to his dismay that Los Angeles had in his absence annexed all the horizon in that direction and was already subdividing it into 50 foot lots.

Dashing back to the Glendale city council, he at once instituted condemnation proceedings. Then, when it was too late, he realized that if the bridge was condemned it would have to be removed.

"But," he argues, "'tis better to have bridged and lost, than never to have bridged at all. Another day, another bridge"

Forestry Board Will Aid Fire Prevention

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—Southern California farm bureaus, chambers of commerce, water users' associations and auto clubs will meet with State Board of Forestry officials in Los Angeles, November 13, to organize a central fire protection committee to carry out plans for more efficient safeguarding against forest fires.

NOTABLE FICTION NOW AT LIBRARY

Southern Glendale Branch's New Books Afford Much Excellent Reading

By CHARLES H. CUSHING
Librarian at Los Feliz road and Brand Branch

A notable and rather unusual book of recent fiction is "Mr. Podd," by Freeman Tilden. The multimillionaire, Mr. Podd, desires to reform the world and organizes a pilgrimage with eight companions to establish a world-wide commonwealth. The mutiny of the crew and the marooning of the pilgrims on an island give rise to situations full of humor and keen satire.

Other new fiction books at the branch library, corner of Brand boulevard and Los Feliz road, are: "Children of Loneliness," by Yezierska, stories of immigrant life; "Blind Cupid," by Bacon, short stories dealing with the peculiar freaks sometimes played by the love god; the O. Henry memorial prize stories for 1922, published by the Society of Arts and Sciences; "Jeremy and Hamlet," "The Duchess of Wrexe" and "Maradick at Forty," by Hugh Walpole; "North of 36," by Emerson Hough, a story of how a young woman in the days following the Civil war led her large herd of cattle a long and dangerous journey across the plains to a market; "Exterior to the Evidence," by Fletcher; "Victoria," by Knut Hamsun; "Last of the Vikings," by Bojer; "In the Twinkling of an Eye," by Watson; "Madam Claire," by Ertz; "A Lost Lady," by Cather; "Lew Tyler's Wives," by Irwin; "The Lunatic at Large Again," by Clouston; "Fombombo," by Stribling; "Sonia," by McKenna; "The Elusive Pimpernel," by The Baroness Orczy; "Scaramouche," by Sabatini; "Doctor Nye," by Joheph Lincoln."

Other Books of Interest

High School Boys to Stage Stag Program

The date of January 12 has been set as the day for the boys' stag party at the high school. As the name indicates, girls will be excluded from the festivities. Arden Gingery, Boys' League president, has already planned some of the features of the program. There will be inter-class basketball games, boxing, and Mr. Brewster has consented to give several readings. The party will be held in the boys' gymnasium.

Legion Aids Plans for Education Week

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Plans of the American Legion for the observance of American Education Week, November 18 to 24 have been completed, according to James K. Fisk of Berkeley, chairman of the California Legionnaire committee.

President Coolidge has recently called attention of all citizens to American Education week as a part of the program of the American Legion in promulgating American ideas.

REQUEST CHANGE IN STREET NAME

Council Withholds Action on Alteration Sought by Property Owners

No definite action was taken last evening by the City Council in the matter of changing the name of Mountain street to Sunset Canyon drive.

According to Morgan N. Smith, 2041 West Mountain street, the existing state of affairs causes some inconvenience. He states in a letter addressed to the city engineer's department:

"Wish to call your attention to the fact that there are two Mountain streets in the city of Glendale. One that starts at Central avenue and runs east through the Bellehurst tract. The other starts at the north end of Grand View and runs west into Burbank.

Changed on Maps

"The writer was informed a short time ago by a surveyor that the latter was officially changed on the county maps to Sunset Canyon drive. That is what the street is called in Burbank.

"We have had people who were looking for our address directed to the Mountain street at the head of Brand boulevard and of course could find no such number as ours there, and did not know there was another street by the same name in Glendale.

"It seems to the writer that your honorable body could straighten this out, as there never can be any connection between these two streets.

City Engineer Ben F. Dupuy, in reporting to the City Council, said:

"I have read over the attached letter from Morgan N. Smith and call your attention to the fact that there is no street called Mountain street between Central avenue and Grand View avenue.

"Cumberland road will eventually be extended through from the end of Brand boulevard to Grand View avenue, meeting what is now Mountain street at Grand View avenue. Mountain street west of Grand View avenue will eventually be connected to Mountain street east of Brand boulevard along the lines of what is now Cumberland road. This will make it necessary to change the name of Mountain street from Brand boulevard to Central avenue.

"I believe that the property owners along Cumberland road would object to changing the name of Cumberland road to Mountain street at this time, as there are so many places between Brand boulevard and Grand View avenue where Cumberland road has not yet been dedicated.

Recommends Change

"With this in mind I recommend that the name of Mountain street west of Grand View avenue be changed to Sunset Canyon drive as requested, with the understanding that when the connection is completed the name will again be changed to Mountain street, or some other name to be selected by the property owners."

The matter was laid over for further investigation, as the Councilmen did not wish to change the name of the street only to change it again in a short time.

Alleged Extortion Plot Meets Failure

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Joseph Fraser, 35, was held by police yesterday while detectives hunted two others who, with Fraser, are alleged to have attempted to extort $500 from Jim Fretello, proprietor of a restaurant in Ord street, as "bail" money for an alleged violation of the liquor laws. The three men are charged with posing as federal prohibition agents.

The ruse was exposed, police said, when Fretello borrowed $500 from his friends, Mike Urgo and Sam Roselli, who became suspicious and later recovered the money from the "officers" at the point of a pistol. The three identified Fraser as one of the fake officers, police said.

Prospects for Oil at State Hospital Poor

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—Examination of the Norwalk State Hospital grounds has failed to corroborate reports that the land was rich in oil, according to State Mineralogist Lloyd L. Root.

"The results of the tests made by the State Mining Bureau do not warrant the state expending money in an effort to bring in paying wells," said Root. "There is small likelihood that the Norwalk property contains oil in paying quantities."

Census Report Shows Total Cotton Ginned

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The census bureau yesterday issued the following report showing the amount of cotton ginned to November 1, from the crops of 1923 and 1922, respectively:

Total running bales, counting round as half bales, 7,554,587 and 8,139,215.

Round bales included, 194,677 and 142,269.

American Egyptian, 11,521 and 13,335.

Sea Island, 437 and 3,136.

OH-HO REHEARSAL GETS UNDER WAY

Musical Extravaganza to Be Presented Here by Tuesday Club

Within a few days rehearsals will be in full sway for the spectacular musical extravaganza that will be staged early in December for the Tuesday Afternoon club. Every preparation is being made toward making this production one of the greatest successes Glendale has known in local talent society shows.

The name of the show is "Oh-Ho." This production has had a most successful career among local talent shows in California. During the war "Oh-Ho" was staged for the Red Cross in Oakland, and so great was its success that it was staged for an entire week, with two additional matinees, having the longest run and making the biggest success ever accorded an amateur show in California. "Oh-Ho" was also staged for an entire week at San Francisco. Pasadena took so kindly to the "Oh-Ho" show that, for five successive years it was presented with an all-local cast in the Crown City, and ranks there as the greatest success Pasadena has known in amateur society theatrical benefits.

Story of College Life

"Oh-Ho" is a college life musical extravaganza, of the George Ade type, patterened after the "Fair Co-ed" and "The College Widow." The show presents a cast of ten leads in a rapid-fire comedy of college life, and from forty to fifty co-eds and college men in the many dance features, fraternity house ensembles and campus musical numbers.

John Reber, who has directed all "Oh-Ho" shows in the West, will have personal charge of the rehearsals for the production here. Reber will have his big cast actively at work by the first of the week.

The staging of "Oh-Ho" is planned for early in December at the Tuesday Afternoon Club theatre.

Klan Headquarters Move to Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 9.—National headquarters for the Ku Klux Klan, headed by Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans, will be moved to this city from Atlanta, Ga., according to reliable information here yesterday.

The transfer will be made within the next two weeks, according to information given out here today and negotiations have been under way for several days for the lease of a building in this city suitable for the Klan headquarters.

F. E. Nulty, real estate dealer, admitted today that the deal was practically closed with the Evans faction of the Klan for a lease on the old Kansas City Athletic club.

"Me for COMFORT in the morning!"

—Noon, night or morning—there's nothing so gratifying as the warmth from a good oil heater filled with Pearl Oil! Heat by the roomful right where and when it is needed: sick-room or guest-room, living-room, hallway or bath—no fire to lay—coal, wood or ashes to lug—only the touch of a match! And no "oily" smell—Pearl Oil is refined and re-refined—the clear, bright flame consumes it entirely.

When you order, remember "coal oil" and "kerosene" are simply generic terms for kerosene of all kinds—good, bad and indifferent. Make sure you get the highest quality kerosene only, refined by the Standard Oil Company's special process. Ask for Pearl Oil by name.

Walton Cannot Break Klan, Asserts Wizard

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 9.—The aloof silence maintained by the Oklahoma Ku Klux Klan since the lifting of martial law was broken yesterday when N. C. Jewett, wizard of the organization in this state, declared emphatically that "Jack Walton cannot break the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma or any other state."

"The Ku Klux Klan is not the issue in this state," Jewett told International News Service in denying Governor Walton's assertion that the Klan is backing a conspiracy to cause his removal from office. "Walton is to be tried for malfeasance in office. That's all there is to that. The trial is a case between the state of Oklahoma and Walton."

"Walton's effort to drag in the Klan failed. His martial law resulted in nothing. Practically no one was convicted by the military court. Walton never intended any convicted man should go to prison. The Klan still remains in Oklahoma."

Tells Character by Child's Handwriting

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—An analysis of a child's handwriting may permit prediction of his future, in the opinion of Rafael Schermann, world's leading authority on handwriting.

"Give me a child's writing, no matter at what age, and I can tell you what vocation it is most adapted to," Schermann declared.

"I can tell which child is lazy, which is untruthful, which is scholarly."

Handwriting of children, Schermann said, is as individual as that of grown persons. It changes, of course, as they develop. Schermann recently startled scientists with his analysis of handwriting at the British museum in London. He denies there is anything psychic about it, however. Since childhood, he said, he has loved to study handwriting—or graphotogy, as he terms it.

LA CRESCENTA

NET BIG PROFIT IN REALTY SALE

Corner Lot, Bought for $750 Brings Owner $7400 When Subdivided

Real estate in La Crescenta is moving along rapidly in the last few days, and the talk of the town is the profit one enterprising buyer made, when he cut up his corner lot, bought sixteen months ago for $750, into four lots, three of which sold for $1800 each on Sunday and a fourth one passed over to a new owner for $2000.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans sold their beautiful home on Montrose avenue the other day and will move to their new home on their six and a half acres below Michigan avenue. Other homes that have been sold lately are the Long's home on Oak street, and the Watkins house on Sycamore street. Mrs. Goodwin, who lately sold her home, will have a new house completed within the next thirty days, and Mr. Myers, who owns the building where the Montrose State bank is located, has purchased acreage on Ramsdale, where he will erect a home of the English cottage type, designed by Harry Peters of Oxford, Eng. Work on this new home will go forward at once.

E. E. Laughrey of South Pasadena has opened a general hardware store in the store building on the corner of Montrose and Los Angeles avenues. Mr. Laughrey will handle heaters, both oil and gas, and intends to compete with the outside market in price. He has moved his family here and will make his home here.

Patient Is Better

Little Elmer Palmer, who was seriously ill from ptomaine poisoning, has so far recovered as to be removed from the Glendale Sanitarium to the Palmer home on Los Angeles avenue.

The old Craft grocery on Honolulu avenue, next to Youngs' garage, has been leased by A. T. Cobb and son of Los Angeles. Mr. Cobb is moving a splendid stock of groceries in and in charging city prices for his goods will, no doubt, build up a splendid trade. Added to this particular advantage, Mr. Cobb, who has had years of experience in this line, will deliver groceries for his patrons which arrangement should meet with instant appreciation.

Seymour Thomas has lettered the notices for the lecture on Gothic Architecture to be held next Thursday night at the school auditorium at 8 o'clock. Notices are being placed in the different stores, and even in some of the Glendale stores. Dr. Montague Cleeves, who will deliver the lecture, knows his subject well, and having visited the different churches and cathedrals abroad, will be able to lecture on them most intelligently.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of Montrose are entertaining Mr. Brown's younger brother and his wife.

Arthur Brown has just returned from abroad, where he spent six years, in France.

New Store Sign

The Benito brothers have erected a large sign over the sidewalk of their new brick building, which may be read for some distance. These popular dealers have stocked their warehouses to the ceiling with feed and grain, and from present indications will soon have to erect an additional warehouse for their fuel stock.

Mrs. Jessie Hansen entertained at luncheon on Thursday in her Piedmont avenue home. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Darling and Mrs. Habernock of Huntington Park, and Chris Hansen of Los Angeles.

The Montrose Chamber of Commerce will give a dance in the La Crescenta school auditorium, on Saturday, November 10. Admission will be nominal. Fletcher's orchestra of Pasadena will furnish the music.

Mark S. Collins and ex-Governor Plaisted, of Maine, will open a new subdivision on New York avenue and Altura streets. The lots will run about half an acre in size and will find a ready market for home builders who desire a larger plot of ground than the average lot. Another subdivision to go on the market is the twenty acres on the east side of Pennsylvania avenue, the old Tosky vineyard. This subdivision is the holding of the Wilson & Burton and Twining & Myers firms of Glendale, and when such progressive business men as these buy in a district it is a well known fact there is not only something doing but a reason for it.

The room mothers of the third, fourth and fifth grades of La Crescenta school, held a party for these grades on Thursday afternoon. The refreshments were apples, doughnuts and popcorn balls and were bought from a fund procured by a 10-cent donation from each child.

Games were played and the kiddies were well entertained. Those in charge of the affair were Mesdames Van Dusen, Findley, Craig, Swain, and Mr. Blanford, principal.

Leave for Mexico

J. Cline and family have moved to Mazatlan, Mexico, where Mr. Cline will go into the subdividing game on a large scale. Mr. Cline was formerly of the Cline & Romo Co., subdividers, with offices on Michigan avenue.

To show he is selling fresh eggs from his poultry ranch on Los Angeles avenue, Mr. Musch has hung a realistic looking egg shaped sign on the edge of the boulevard, announcing "Fresh Eggs for Sale." Mr. Busch recently sold out his entire feed stock and is raising chickens for stocking farms, etc., and table food.

PRIMROSE

Graceful and rich is this coat developed in the softest of pile materials and luxuriously trimmed with Russian Korsak fox. It has captured that fashionable air of swagger and dash, so admirable, so smart, yet so elusive. Lined with Corticelli Silk.

LORRAINE

This dainty frock of Corticelli Satin Sa-On, one of Irene Castle's latest acquisitions is quite plain with the exception of four litlte silk embroidered pockets, depending upon the beauty of the fabric for its piquant smartness. Collar and cuffs are of very fine Venetian lace.

SYBELLE

That elusive, disturbing grace which has so recently come out of mysterious Russia is given full sway in this exclusive walking costume of Corticelli Satin Sa-On. Heavy soft gray fur adorns cuffs and bottom of skirt. A large buckled belt, a new Lanvin collar and a row of drop-ball buttons down the front are other features.

LOTUS

The captivating smartness of this evening frock of Corticelli Satin Sa-On is due both to the charm of its style and the beauty of its material. The tight bodice is unrelieved except by the applique lace adorning the neck and shoulders. The waist line is broken with fine pin tucks while the Parisian influence is further evidenced by the Poiret bustle.

CORNER CHANGES OWNERS IN DEAL

Purchasers to Erect Building With Room to Expand for Future Needs.

Further development of the J. W. Fawkes industrial district is seen in the purchase by W. E. Roskam and R. W. Attwater of the corner of Olive avenue and Main street, from Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hutcherson, the former owners.

This constitutes a section which completes the block of land owned by Mr. Fawkes. The new owners feel that the corner is destined to become an important one in the new business and industrial district and they have evolved plans that look far into the future.

The plan is to erect there in the near future a one-story structure with a foundation sufficient for several additional stories, as developments in the years ahead warrant. The ground floor may be occupied by a branch bank, while the other space will be taken up by wholesale and warehouse interests, as it is along these lines that the district will be developed.

Messrs. Roskam and Attwater have given 8½ feet to the Southern Pacific for a drill track that will cut directly along the back property line to Main street, which they state will soon be paved.

Sherwood Branch Here

Burbank now has a branch of the famous Sherwood Conservatory of Music, established twenty-five years ago in Chicago by Wm. H. Sherwood, then known as America's greatest pianist. The branch is located at 319 East San Fernando boulevard, in the Minor building, with a faculty that is said to be worthy of the celebrated name the institution enjoys.

The regular conservatory course as taught at Chicago will be studied under capable teachers, it is announced, graduation from which will lead to a teacher's certificate and diploma.

"The boys and girls of the Luther Burbank school have policed the grounds and the hedge has been trimmed. Recently they have had the privilege of seeing such educational films as "The Making of Toys," "The Shark Industry" and "The Benefits of Water to Man." They are also learning how to behave in an assembly. The children of the Luther Burbank school while all together also have a little community sing led by Miss Boughton.

GLENDALE WOMEN HELP CELEBRATION

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, at President's Day Lunch, Talks of Women.

Presidents' Day at the Women's Twentieth Century clubhouse, observed yesterday noon and afternoon, drew a quorum of Glendale speakers. The luncheon speaker was Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, who appeared for Mrs. Dan Campbell, president, the scheduled speaker, unable to be present. The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Charles H. Toll, also of Glendale, president of the Los Angeles district federation of women's clubs. Both meetings were presided over by Mrs. A. G. Reily, president of the local club.

Earl C. Houk, Eagle Rock baritone, contributed a group of well rendered songs to the program. Mrs. Montgomery's remarks were along the lines of service, wherein she urged that club members support their officers, while Mrs. Toll told of the work of the federation and laid down this year's program, showing that the cause of the woman worker is being championed and that adequate child labor laws are to be demanded, together with more uniform divorce laws.

Business Women Meet

The Business and Professional Women's club met at the Public Library last night, when the charter was pronounced closed by Dr. Mary Le Clere, in charge of membership.

The club starting upon the second phase of its history, already well established in the few brief months of its organization, was the recurrent theme of the various talks given.

The membership drive will be continued, it was stated, and the policy will be to make the club a social as well as practical organization, calculated to furnish recreation for its members. During the winter months hikes will be engaged in, together with other sports suitable to the season. And at least one dance is planned.

FIVE DIE IN CRASH

IRONTON, Ohio, Nov. 9.—Five persons were killed here yesterday afternoon when a Chesapeake & Ohio passenger train, train No. 3, struck the Ironton-Ohio, Ashland bus. The five victims were unidentified. The bus was carried a considerable distance by the train and bodies were mutilated. It is believed they were from Ironton and Ashland.

Bavarians Plan Raid On American Airship

MUNICH, Nov. 9.—Bavarian national coupists have planned to commandeer the giant Zeppelin ZR-3, which is being built for the United States navy, according to a report in circulation here. The mighty airship is nearing completion at the Zeppelin works at Friederichshafen.

The Bavarian government is taking steps to frustrate the conspiracy, fearing complications if it should be carried into effect.

The Friederichshafen factory and the officials of the Zeppelin company are being closely guarded by police. The company is most anxious to complete the airship and land it in the United States after a trans-Atlantic voyage to add to its prestige.

The Zeppelin rights and patents were recently bought by a group of United States capitalists. The German officials of the company are anxious for construction of Zeppelins to continue at Akron, Ohio, without any untoward accident to the new balloon now being completed at Friederichshafen.

It is understood that the officials of the Germany company are ready to sacrifice the ZR-3 rather than allow it to fall into other hands than the Americans who contracted for it.

Girl Wife Tells Of Slaying Husband

DENVER, Nov. 9.—From her cell in the city jail today Mrs. Rose Maes, 18, calmly told of the events which led up to the murder of her husband, Joseph Maes, 26, a waiter.

According to the pretty young wife, her husband has often bragged of his conquests of other women and had demanded that she earn her living upon the streets. Believing that his love for her had died, and that she was to be deserted, Mrs. Maes purchased an obsolete four-barreled Derringer revolver. Upon her return to their room in a local hotel, her husband, she claims, again made the demand of her, at the same time reaching for a heavy object upon a nearby stand with which to strike her. Then, Mrs. Maes said, she drew from beneath her coat the revolver and shot her husband through the heart.

TWO TEAMS WAIT WHISTLE'S BLAST

[illegible] and Bears on Edge for Crucial Battle in Coliseum Tomorrow

By 'DOC' M'GILLIS
Of The Evening News Staff

With a week of most strenuous secret practice ended today both the members of the California Bears and Southern California Trojans are resting rather uneasily this evening, eagerly waiting for the referee's whistle tomorrow afternoon signifying the beginning of what promises to be the greatest football battle ever waged in Los Angeles. Rain or shine, advance interest in the contest warrants an estimate of 65,000 spectators, with more in case Jupiter Pluvius spares the day.

While Andy Smith has been driving his boys at top speed up at Berkeley this week, "Gloomy Gus" Henderson has become gloomier every time an outsider even looked his way. If one were to fall for all of the U. S. C. coach's dismal conversation, tomorrow's big game would be all California by at least a 50 or 60-point margin. But, underneath it all, Henderson and his hard working Cardinal and Gold football artists are confidently looking forward to giving the Golden Bears the hardest fight that they have experienced during the past four years.

Meet on Even Terms

In spite of a number of injuries to first string men the Trojans will go into the Bruin game on even terms with the Purple and Gold performers from the north. Henderson's principal worries now are injuries to Gordon Campbell, mainstay of the Methodists' offense in early season games and recognized as one of the outstanding backs of the 1923 conference; Hobbs Adams, half-back who was shifted to end in the Stanford contest and who was the day's hero; and "Chief" Newman, hard-hitting backfield star.

Of the three cripples the Trojans could get along nicely without Adams and Newman, but with Campbell it's an entirely different story. The former Long Beach high school star has shown that he is capable of running rings around any ball carrier in the south this year, and it will be a hard blow for U. S. C. if their gritty little fullback fails to get into the big game.

Campbell Will Try

But—those who know Campbell likewise know that if he's able to [illegible]n a suit tomorrow afternoon [illegible]l insist on getting a crack at the pesky Bears. All in all, it's an even bet that all three of the reported cripples will be out parading their wares when the time comes.

Up at Berkeley Andy Smith and his corps of able-bodied assistants have been working overtime since last Saturday's humiliating tie game with Nevada in a determined endeavor to down the Trojans. With all of his first string men in good shape Smith landed in Los Angeles this morning and immediately carted his charges to the Ambassador hotel. A brief workout in the Coliseum was on tap this afternoon.

Cardinals Go Through Stiff Signal Practice

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—The Cardinals from Palo Alto, headed by Coach Andy Kerr, snapped through a stiff signal, passing and kicking drill here today in preparation for their battle tomorrow on Multnomah field with the University of Oregon eleven. The game will mark the first appearance of a Stanford football team on a Portland gridiron.

While the Cards were going through their paces here, Coach Huntington was sending his charges through their last workout at Eugene. Oregon was not due to arrive until tonight.

Chicago grappler, who meets "Bull" Montana in main event of Glendale Athletic club show Monday night.

'BOOL' TO RASSLE NEW MAT ARTIST

Charley Olson of Chicago Confident He Can Floor Filmland's Favorite

By AL DIX
Of The Evening News Staff.

Cards are out today announcing the program for the Glendale Athletic club show to be staged at Hahn's auditorium Monday night, November 12, by Matchmaker Les Marston.

The main event is a finish match between "Bull" Montana and Charley Olson of Chicago. Olson is a newcomer to Glendale, but has made an enviable record in the northwest. He is credited with victories over several good mat artists, and is confident that he can pin the "Bool's" shoulders to the mat. The match is arranged on the winner take all basis, best two falls out of three, with no time limit. Olson is training daily, and his manager states he is in the pink of condition. Bull's work in the movies keeps him physically fit, and he is ready to step into the ring at a moment's notice.

Good Boxing Card

For the fans who favor boxing to the wrestling game, there is a treat in the way of a go between Teddie Biller of Pasadena and Battling Ward. Those who saw Biller in action last Tuesday night are very enthusiastic in their praise of his showing, and Ward is known as one of the best fighters in this region. This bout will prove an attraction worthy of a headliner. Biller is firmly installed in the graces of the local fans by virtue of his decision over Packy Flynn, but in Ward he has a tougher opponent who will make him call all his cleverness into play.

In addition, Joe Rickey will take on Ernie Stocker, local 110-pounder, and Pete Essick, who fought a draw with Freddie Klagge at the last show, will meet Tony Gonzales.

Matchmaker Marston has Bull's signed contract for appearance in his pocket and states that there is no danger of a non-appearance in this show as there was last Tuesday night.

BRUIN ELEVEN TO FACE STIFF TEST

Andy Smith Sends Bears South On Desperate Drive To Subdue Trojans

By J. EVERT SMITS
Written for The Evening News

The interest of the Pacific coast football world centers tomorrow on the California-U. S. C. affair in the Los Angeles Coliseum. The unexpected defeat of Stanford by the Trojans and the upset of California by the Nevada outfit has served to make tomorrow's game the most-talked-of event so far this season, and to attempt to predict the outcome would be folly.

The game will be the supreme test of the Bruin eleven, and Coach Andy Smith has been working his men long after sundown the past week in an effort to bring them into shape for the contest. With brilliant searchlights playing on the field, the squad has been going through its paces in scrimmage until as late as 7 o'clock nightly.

Smith took warning at the disastrous result of blocked kicks in the Stanford game and has devoted a great deal of time to the backfield men who protect the punter. He does not intend to let U. S. C. score any touchdowns as they did on the Cards, and has developed a defense for Whitter that should allow him to get away some of the best punts of the season.

Practices Drop Kicks

Bill Blewett, who has become famous during the present season for his drop-kicking, has been spending a lot of time sending the ball between the crossbars anywhere from within the forty-yard line, and it is certain that he will be used if the Bears are unable to score a touchdown. Three points will look mighty big if the Trojans manage to hold the Bears to a 0-0 score for three quarters as did Nevada, and Blewett is the only man that can be relied upon to drop the pigskin over the bar in an emergency. He will not start the game, but will be saved until Andy thinks he is needed.

The men who will start the game in the backfield are Whitter at full, Captain Don Nichols at half, Evans at quarter, and either Dunn or Dixon at the other half position. The line will remain unchanged, with Mell and Hufford, ends; Beam and Newmeyer, tackles; Carey and Perry, guards; and Horrell, center. The teams are nearly alike in respect to team strength. Both have strong lines that charge low and follow the ball. Neither backfield has shown any particular brilliancy on the offense, but both have a nearly perfect defense. This means that the score will undoubtedly be low and the team that gets the best breaks will win.

Looking for Breaks

California is noted for putting out a team that makes its own breaks, but from the Trojan's showing at Palo Alto two weeks ago it would seem that Henderson has been instructing his squad along the same lines. A team that is able to block four punts in one game is not getting all the breaks by pure luck. It takes football ability to take advantage of the breaks of the game as U. S. C. did, and the Trojans can be expected to follow the ball just as closely against the Bears, if not more so. The result of a contest between teams playing a brand of football so much alike should be extremely close, to say the least.

The California Varsity will not go into the game over-confident. The Nevada affair gave the squad a rude jolt and put quite a dent in the Bears' reputation. Andy Smith gave the boys and awful raking over the coals for their showing in that game and they are again back in form, determined to smear the Trojans so hard that the football world will forget there was a Nevada game. The squad is in the pink of condition and every man, with the exception of Carlson, who is still out with a broken ankle, will be ready to take his place in the machine that the California rooters declare will win by a margin of 14 points.

The greatest rooters' section that California has ever shown outside of Berkeley will be in the Blue and Gold section of the Coliseum. Both the band and the glee club are making the trip, as well as thousands of independent students. Two special trains on the Southern Pacific line are leaving for the south tonight, besides the steamship Harvard with reservations taken entirely by California students.

Jack Dempsey Turns To Horse Race Game

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 9.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, mining operator, real estate dealer and moving picture actor, is about to become a turfman with a stable of from six to eight horses, said James W. Coffroth, president of the Tia Juana Jockey club, here yesterday. The Mexican course opens on Thanksgiving day. The initial purchase of Dempsey's racing venture, Coffroth added, would be a string of either six or eight thoroughbreds.

LOCALS LOOM AS PENNANT WINNER

Glendale 130 Pounders Take Alhambra Into Camp By 34 to 2 Score

By NEAL E. SOOY
Written for The Evening News

With a sweeping victory that practically cinched the Central League lightweight football pennant, the Glendale Union High school 130 pound team mopped up Moyse field with the Alhambra midgets yesterday afternoon, 34-2.

The locals were in danger only twice; once when the Moors made 40 yards on passes until one was intercepted, and the other time was when one of their punts rolled out on Glendale's 10-yard line and a safety was garnered in on an ensuing blocked punt.

Elmer Muff proved beyond a doubt that his talents have been thrown away center, playing one crackerjack game at left half. He accounted for two touchdowns and also converted twice. Lovell, LaFranchi and Porter Thompson each chalked up a marker also.

Get Alhambra's Number

The Moors came over confident of victory and the Red and Black pigskinners went into the fracas rather doubtful of the outcome, but after the first two or three plays, the final result was never disputed. Covina is now the only remaining team for the locals to play, and if the latter beat them, they will probably be awarded the league banner, as the Covina squad only ran up a 12-0 score against Alhambra, the locals will probably win.

Glendale kicked and forced the Moors to punt. Glendale went 40 yards up the field and Lovell went across. He also converted. Glendale again kicked and forced Alhambra to punt. The Moors blocked a place kick and made 20 yards on a pass the next play. The quarter ended before any more damage was done. Score: 7-0.

Alhambra also tried a place kick, which was blocked. Glendale was forced to punt. Alhambra tried more passes and made yards, but one of them was disastrous as it was intercepted. The locals and the visitors exchanged the pill several times without gaining much either way, until Chuck Thompson ran 25 yards with a pass. He would have had a touchdown but he was forced out on a 10-yard line. Frenchy squirmed over and Lovell added the point. Score: 14-0.

Alhambra kicked and held Glendale. They then went 40 yards up the gridiron on passes, until the locals strengthened and held them for downs. From then on until the end of the quarter, the globular see-sawed back and forth, with the invaders having slightly the best of it. Score: 14-0.

The fourth quarter was the real scoring period for both sides. Alhambra kicked and Muff raced 50 yards for a touchdown. He also converted. Glendale kicked and Porter Thompson intercepted one of the Moor passes and galloped 50 yards for another marker. Muff failed to add the point. Alhambra kicked and held Glendale for downs. They punted to the locals' 10-yard line. On the next play they got through and blocked the punt. A Glendale man secured it, but was tackled behind the line. Glendale was given the pill on her own 20-yard line, and started a march down the field, which was ended when Muff traveled 30 yards for a score. He also converted. Final score: 34-2.

Intermediate Teams Split Doubleheader

A double-header in the volleyball schedule for the inter-school championship was played off Thursday afternoon on the girls' playground at Glendale avenue, the senior game going to Glendale avenue with a close score of 2 to 0, and the midgets from Wilson winning by 2 to 1. Both games were featured with splendid team work.

Girls in the senior line-up for Wilson were: Mae McAteer, Martha Sibberell, Esther Wintersgill, Hazel Woodhouse, Waveli Compton, Norma Faulkner, Josephine Miller, Chloe Soloner, Naida Taylor. For Glendale Avenue: Louise Kopp, Margaret Huse, Jessie East, Millicent Foulke, Mildred Beatty, Adelia Larson, Marie Palmer, Helen Lindrum, Minnie Gustafson. Substitutes: Freda Dassoff, Beth Coffman, Margaret Bartlett, Audrey Phillips, Nina Velser.

Mrs. Margaret Struble and Miss Natalie Mackay refereed.

The midget line-up for Wilson: Mae Goetz, Grace Daby, Vera Lockwood, Pauline Marsh, Anna Ratigan, Doris Hanna, Ruth Bender, Hazel Howard, Katherine Davis. Substitutes: Narcisse Truit, Jane Criswell. For Glendale Avenue: Alice Priaulx, Evelyn Murphy, LaVerne Wolfram, Hattie Hyer, Beatrice Smith, Betty Grant, Mary Goto, Marguerite Chappell. Substitutes: Muriel Poorman, Helen Rosenberg, Irma Givens.

Miss Ruth Williams and Miss Ada Salstrom refereed.

Touch-Ball Contest Won by Wilson Team

The junior teams of the two intermediate schools were pitted against each other on the athletic field at Glendale avenue yesterday afternoon in the first touchball game that has been played on the local school grounds. The game ended with a score of 12 to 0 for Wilson Avenue.

"Nono" Stanley made the first touchdown for Wilson, and Leland Gasser followed, scoring on an intercepted forward pass. Howard Hack, quarterback, handled his team well and figured in clever forward passes. Stanley Eckert, fullback, made many gains for Wilson. Robert E. Lee and Wheeler Doll of Glendale Avenue did splendid work, intercepting forward passes, although they did not score.

Monk Quits Monastery To Pay Family Debt

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Trappist fathers in their cloister maintain absolute silence, celibacy, immurement from the world, poverty and a diet meager, almost to starvation.

In the great silence in the Cistercian monastery at Cumberland, R. I., Andrew Dennis, a young novitiate from this city, was stung by the memory of a considerable debt which his grandfather incurred and which his father was unable to clear.

Andrew Dennis decided to return to the world and pay the creditors every cent. He obtained a special dispensation from Pope Benedict, temporarily releasing him from his monastic vows. Yesterday he entered the service of the city of Boston as assistant chaplain at Long Island hospital. When the debt is satisfied and the family disgrace is erased, Andrew Dennis will return to his white habit and cowl.

Bears on Scene of Battle With Trojans

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—University of California's Golden Bears, twenty-five strong, undefeated during the past three years and still supreme in the western football world, arrived here today, ready to meet the University of Southern California eleven in the south's big inter-collegiate football tilt tomorrow in the new Los Angeles coliseum.

The Berkeley pigskinners predicted they would easily trounce the Trojans in their march toward continued supremacy. Every member of the California aggregation is reported in good condition and anxiously awaiting the starting whistle. Contrary to expectations the Bears did not work out today, as Coach Andy Smith ordered his men to rest and take things easy.

A crowd of 70,000 is expected to witness the grid battle. Advance seat sales have already passed the 57,000 mark, it was stated today.

The Bears will enter the game a 2-to-1 favorite over the Trojans.

Three-Minute Talks on Peace by Women

Carrying out a suggestion received from the headquarters of the General Federation of Women's clubs that the "Three Minute Men" of war times be replaced by "Three Minute Women" of peace times, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president of the Tuesday Afternoon club, has appointed a group of club women to appear at Sunday morning services in Glendale's prominent churches, and give a message of peace.

This message has been sent out by the General Federation and those who bring it to Glendale church people will be: Mrs. C. H. Toll at the First Methodist church; Mrs. Mattison B. Jones at the Glendale Presbyterian church; Mrs. A. H. Montgomery at the Tropico Presbyterian church; Mrs. C. W. Houston at the Congregational church; Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson at the Central Christian church; Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward at the First Baptist church; Mrs. E. W. Evans at St. Mark's Episcopal church; Mrs. C. E. Norton at the Holy Family Catholic church.

Family Quarrel Ends in Death of Couple

SHANGHAI, Nov. 9.—A disagreement which finally ended in a quarrel resulted in the death of both participants here yesterday.

Harry Amberg, the Far Eastern representative of the Universal Picture Corporation, and his wife, residing at the Hong Kong hotel, became engaged in a quarrel. Mrs. Amberg in the excitement swallowed a potion of poison.

Amberg, learning that there was no hope for the recovery of his wife, jumped thirty feet into the courtyard of the hotel. Both died within a short time.

Woman Autoist Faces Manslaughter Charge

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Miss Lavina Perry today faced a manslaughter charge as a result of an automobile accident last evening which cost two lives and the serious injury of a third person.

A heavy coupe driven by Miss Perry crushed Mrs. Charles H. McCutcheon against her car, which was standing on the highway. The car driven by Miss Perry turned over three times. She was uninjured, but her brother, Edward Perry, was killed, and Gifford Gordon, a passenger, badly hurt. Ed Shields, a passenger in the car driven by Miss Perry, was uninjured. Mrs. McCutcheon died a short time after the accident. Miss Perry was released under $1000 bail.

Success is not made by lying awake at night, but by keeping awake in the daytime.

INVITATIONS OUT TO SHRINE PARTY

Nobles to Witness Program of Boxing and Stunts At Club's Frolic

Dust off the old fez and step right out Wednesday night, November 14, to the Hahn auditorium at 109-A North Brand boulevard, is the invitation all Shriners in Glendale have received from the Shrine club, of which D. Ripley Jackson, Glendale's singing postmaster, is president.

Now that the fine fall weather is here, bringing the spirit of the holiday season, the Nobles are urged to turn out and start the social season off with a business meeting, program of boxing, stunts, smokes and eats.

Special Guests

It is hinted that some special guests will be on hand and a promise in black and white is given that "no one will be boned for a sou, half shekel, mark or ruble."

As a final inspiration the invitations issued reads, "Now come, bring another Noble, rambling Sheiks are welcome. All Nobles are welcome, rich or broke; dues or no dues; quit or resigned.

"Remember, fellers, you are one of us all the time.

"Come out and razz the committee and make them show their stuff.

"By the way, we will appoint

Scenery of Swiss Riviera Entrances W. B. Kirk's Party

Glendalians are to travel into Italy today with W. B. Kirk in his travel letter. Switzerland, as described by Mr. Kirk, proved most interesting to Glendalians and now they are anticipating seeing Italy, through a traveler's eyes. Mr. Kirk writes:

W. B. KIRK

"Friday morning saw us aboard the train finally bound for Lugano, this spot which we have had in mind as a good place to rest in. It took us thirty-six hours to reach here, however. In order to avoid doubling back a long way north, our ticket agent adviser routed us to the Italian border at Iselle, whence we were supposed to pay our fare through Italian territory, on a new Italian line just being completed, to a point in the Suisse border again, near Locarno, when our ticket would again be good to Lugano.

"With another electric engine for power we again climbed mountains, went through tunnels and along precipices, till suddenly we shot into a tunnel to which there didn't seem to be any end. On inquiry, the ticket man told us it was the Lotschberg tunnel. We emerged near Brig, a junction point for Zennott and the Matterhorn, then pentrated the noted Simplon tunnel into Italy.

"Although so well known, it is short compared to the Lotschberg. At the border we found that the new line had not yet been entirely completed and trains were not yet running, so our conductor, in his kindness, hurriedly

PAINTS SUBJECT FOR CLUB TALK

William Hunter Presents Facts in Pleasing Way At Rotary Meet

Throughout history, those who have been builders have been painters, William Hunter told the members of the Glendale Rotary club at their noon luncheon yesterday at Jensen's Egyptian Village, 133 North Brand boulevard.

Mr. Hunter, as proprietor of the Glendale Paint and Paper company, 119 South Brand boulevard, is a well known local merchant and Rotarian. It was under his chairmanship that the highly successful Hallowe'en party for Rotarians and their Rotary Anns and Annettes was put on recently. Formerly an importer of paints and similar materials, he has been in this line of business for many years and has made a careful study of the subject on which he addressed the club yesterday.

On King Tut's Coffin

"King Tut's coffin was painted," said Mr. Hunter, "and doubtless many coffins before Tut's time. Paint is not just the modern preparation we know. Any color put on a surface is rightly called paint. The ingredients going to make paint come from all over the world. Turkey, Italy, France and the cliffs of Dover,

'Glendale River' Has No Bathing And Fishing Signs

"Glendale River—No Fishing." That is the sign which adorns the side of the Pullman cafe, on the alley on Broadway just west of Brand boulevard.

"No Bathing Allowed in Glendale River" is the sign on the Leah Holzer candy store side of the same alley.

For a "living stream," such as real estate men like to advertise, flows down the alley to Broadway and meanders around the streets until it finds some convenient sink hole.

Society Circus Will Offer Many Novelties

A circus with over 1,000 advance agents is coming to town! And Friday and Saturday, November 16 and 17, will be "Circus Days" in Glendale.

There will be no roaring lions, daring acrobats, dashing ponies or trained seals, but there will be pink lemonade, gay balloons, sideshow attractions and a thousand and one other big features to entertain and thrill both young and old.

It won't be a circus under a canvas top, but a society circus at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse, where the club women, led by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president and chairman of ways and means, will be hostesses, to make money for the club's general fund.

A brilliant program has been arranged for the two days, and the plans in detail will be announced at an early date.

Hillslopes Around Glendale Formerly Had Thick Growth Impenetrable Chapparal

By OLD TIMER
Written for The Evening News

In an article published recently in The Glendale Evening News attention was called to the recent forest fires on the slopes of the Verdugo Hills and the effect they would have on the watershed. Danger of floods in the valley was stressed. The denudation of the hills by fire has been so gradual, each year some hundreds of acres being burned over, that it takes a look backward to the days when the chapparal covered the slopes and presented masses of dark green as far as eye could see to realize how great the denudation is.

In those days, any deviation from the narrow trail through the tangled growth of chapparal, soon led into an unknown territory, and it was only by climbing through the dense brush to some high point that the explorer could locate himself, as the chapparal-covered slopes made one canyon look exactly like another.

Kept Close to Trails

The seeker after holly in the late autumn, or the early ferns of the springtime, kept close to the trails or, as sometimes happened, searching parties would be obliged to go out and bring in some belated youngsters or more adventuresome youths.

To one who once became bewildered in a nine-acre cornfield, whose tall stalks effectually concealed in the dim light of an autumn evening the surrounding landscape, to be lost in dense chapparal does not seem an unbelievable occurrence. It was in the middle west it occurred, and after following up one row and down another, hoping to come out into the open, at last the eye glimpsed the last lingering golden glow of the sunset and, resolutely setting face to the south, a hurried rush was made for the open, by some good fortune getting out. But such is the unreliability of the senses under those circumstances that the "open" reached was on the north side of the cornfield instead of the south, a half circle around from the starting point.

Hikers Climbed Hills

As Old Timer said recently, in speaking of the delightful walks around Glendale, that winter seemed to be the favorite time to climb Mt. Verdugo and that any pleasant day the trail up the slope at the head of Brand boulevard swarmed with hikers bound for the summit.

It was a steep trail, the first slope being almost straight up and then winding from rise to rise, sometimes dipping down, only very steep, and wires had been stretched along the trail for a few rods, which assisted very much in making the ascent.

The writer, making the climb in January, found it very warm, although the morning had been cool, making gloves and sweaters very comfortable; before the summit was reached both were discarded and the party sweltered in the hot sun that beat down on their heads and recourse was had frequently to the water bottles which each carried. Even then the climb seemed a hard one, especially as using the arms to

EFFORT CREATES NEW LEADERSHIP

Salesmanship Campaign to Reveal Real Workers In Next Few Days

By J. A. MALCOLM
Salesmanship Club Manager

Did you see the standing of the club members in The Glendale Evening News big salesmanship campaign Wednesday? Did you notice the big possibilities for scores of the present club members to surpass the leaders by putting forth just a little effort during the next few days? And, lastly, did you notice the exceptional opportunity for entirely new club members to come into this campaign and win prizes worth thousands of dollars?

If you did not notice any of these things, then you have overlooked a chance that may never come to you again. Why, the largest number of credits the leading members of the club have represent so few subscribtions that it will be no trick at all for some one to jump in and top the list. Present club members, those who wish to win, and really mean business, have the best chance of all to cinch a big prize by doing their best work now.

First Period Important

The first period of the campaign ends November 24. After that date subscriptions lose about 30 per cent of their value. If you knew you could get two dollars a bushel for wheat right now, but that after December 1 the price would only be a dollar and a half, wouldn't you get that wheat to market just as soon as you possibly could?

You know you would call in your neighbors, hire every one you

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— By Howard R. Garis —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND JACK FROST

"Ah, Nurse Jane, I feel fine and dandy this morning!" said Uncle Wiggily one Friday as he slid down the banister rail in his hollow stump bungalow. "As soon as I eat breakfast and have a cup of hot carrot coffee I'm going out for an adventure."

"That's just the worst of it!" spoke the muskrat lady housekeeper in a sad and doleful voice.

"What's the worst of it?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Do you mean that I shouldn't have any adventures? Why, I'll be very careful not to let any of the bad chaps nibble my ears, Nurse Jane."

"Oh, it isn't that," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "But you can't have any carrot coffee this morning, because Mrs. Moo Cow forgot to leave any milk. And I know you like milk or cream in your coffee."

"That's right," said Uncle Wiggily, "I do. So Mrs. Moo Cow forgot our cream, did she. Well, no matter. Perhaps she had a pain in one of her horns, this morning. I'll hop over to her stable and get a bottle of cream myself."

"That is very kind of you," answered Nurse Jane. "I'll have the coffee and everything ready for you as soon as you get back."

So Uncle Wiggily started from the hollow stump bungalow to hop over the fields and through the woods to the stable of Mrs. Moo Cow and get a bottle of cream for his carrot coffee. But when the rabbit gentleman had opened the door and stepped out he came quickly back in again.

"What's the matter?" asked Nurse Jane. "Is Mrs. Moo Cow coming along with her milk?"

"No, she isn't coming along, but Jack Frost has been along!" laughed Mr. Longears. "It is very cold outside. Jack Frost has been freezing everything and he is still at work. I want my warm mittens to wear when I get the cream. Otherwsie my paws may freeze to the bottle."

"Here they are," spoke Nurse Jane, and she handed the bunny gentleman some mittens she had knitted for him. Then, cozy and warm, Uncle Wiggily started after milk.

"Yes, Jack Frost was certainly out last night," murmured the bunny to himself as he hopped along, "and I can feel him yet." By this Uncle Wiggily meant it was very cold, and he spoke of Jack Frost as one speaks of Santa Claus.

Many animal folk, and some real folk, too, think of cold weather as a jolly little elf, or fairy, who makes icicles and snowballs. Not every one can see Jack Frost, but all may feel him tingle their nose or their toes on cold days.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily! I'm so sorry I forgot to leave your milk and cream this morning," said Mrs. Moo Cow, when the rabbit gentleman had reached her stable. "But I had so much to do, and Jack Frost froze some of my milk—I had all sorts of trouble!"

"Pray don't worry about that!" laughed Uncle Wiggily, and then, to his surprise, he found he couldn't twinkle his pink nose. Jack Frost had made it so cold it wouldn't twinkle. But as soon as Uncle Wiggily sat down near Mrs. Moo Cow's warm fire, his nose thawed and he could twinkle it as well as ever.

"Here is your bottle of cream," mooed the cow lady. "I filled it extra full on account of not getting to your bungalow."

"Oh, thank you," said the bunny gentleman, with a low and polite bow. Then, taking the bottle of cream, which was almost running over, he started back for his hollow stump bungalow.

When he was half way the rabbit gentleman felt a bit tired, so, seeing a log beside the path, he sat himself down to rest. He put the bottle of cream down on the log, and, as he did so, he spilled some of it out of the bottle on the log.

"No matter," said Uncle Wiggily to himself, "I have plenty more."

And then, all of a sudden, while the bunny gentleman was sitting there on the log, up came the Woozie Wolf and sat down beside him, just as the spider saw little Miss Muffet and sat down beside her.

"Oh!" gasped Uncle Wiggily, as he saw the Wolf.

"Ho! Ho!" laughed the bad chap. "Now I'm going to nibble your ears!"

Uncle Wiggily didn't know what to do until he saw that the Wolf had sat down on the log right in the place where the cream had slopped over and spilled from the bottle. Then a look of joy came over the face of the bunny gentleman.

Quickly pulling up from the log his bottle of cream, Uncle Wiggily himself jumped up and cried:

"You can't nibble my ears!"

"Yes I can!" snarled the Wolf. "I'll jump up and chase you and nibble your ears!"

"Ho! Ho! You can't!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "Let me see you get up! You can't, for you sat down in the spilled cream and Jack Frost has frozen you fast there so you can't get up! So you can't even get up, and you can't chase me and you can't nibble my ears!"

"Oh, thank you," said the bunny gentleman.

Truly enough, the Wolf was frozen fast to the log. Jack Frost had made the weather so cold that it had turned the spilled cream into ice.

"I'll get you!" I'll get you!" howled the Wolf. Then he pulled and he tugged, and he pulled and he tugged, but he couldn't get loose. So Uncle Wiggily hopped safely home with the bottle of cream and had his breakfast.

And if the blue jay bird doesn't try to turn into a gold fish by taking a bath in red ink, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the carpet sweeper.

POEMS That LIVE

AUTUMN

Thou comest, Autumn, heralded by rain,
With banners, by great gales incessant fann'd,
Brighter than brightest silks of Samarcand,
And stately oxen harness'd to thy wain;
Thou standest, like imperial Charlemagne,
Upon thy bridge of gold; thy royal hand
Outstretched with benedictions o'er the land,
Blessing the farms through all thy vast domain.
Thy shield is the red harvest moon, suspended
So long beneath the heaven's o'erchanging eaves;
Thy steps are by the farmer's prayers attended;
Like flames upon an altar shine the sheaves;
And, following thee, in thy ovation splendid,
Thine almoner, the wind, scatters the golden leaves!

BEAUTY FINDS REAL HAPPINESS

Countess Palffy, Boston Girl, Weds Again

Latest photo of the Countess Palffy

Countess Palffy, formerly Miss Dorothy Deacon of Boston, whose beauty won her fame years ago, has returned to the U. S. for a visit. With her is Count Palffy, her second husband. Her second marriage has proved a happy one, she says. Her first romance was with Prince Antoine Albert Radziwill. Their marriage was a failure. After many pleas Miss Deacon finally obtained an annulment from the Sacred Rota Tribunal of Rome. Shortly afterward she married the count.

Today—To Preserve Central Park; Choosing One's Residence; Our Annual Church Racket.

By MAX KASE
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—At least two prominent New Yorkers are determined that no subway shall nibble at the roots of the trees and grass in Central park—the chief "open space" on Manhattan island.

These are Borough President Julius Miller and Senator Nathan Straus, Jr.

Miller delivered himself of a ukase recently tantamount to a declaration that such a project would be "over his dead body."

Senator Straus has now made oration in sardonic vein, in which he suggests that if commercialism is to motivate all activities, New York might dam up the streams in Central park, build a power house near the bandstand in the Mall and conserve this wasted horsepower in a hydro-electric development.

Exponents of the enterprise would build the proposed subway extension along the western edge of the park, and, what is worse, they would employ the "open cut" scheme of construction.

The slaughter of the shrubbery, of course, would make the park look like a logging camp in the Siskiyous, or, in the words of Senator Straus, "like a section of an oil town."

It is declared the saving in construction would aggregate two million dollars, the park route being shorter than its alternative.

Marjorie Daw is a piker.

Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, whose boudoir undoubtedly excelled that of Marjorie, is now ensconced in a former stable on Macdougal alley in Greenwich Village, opposite that of Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney's workshop.

Mrs. Hoyt likes the atmosphere there, she says.

Local church circles were amused—or dismayed, according to the individual case—when a number of members of the Calvary Baptist church congregation were summarily "suspended." Rev. John Roach Straton, the pastor, was the only one who knew who was on the list.

Rev. Straton is understood to have charged that "a coterie" of business men and society women" in the church had tried to put the ecclesiastical skids under him while he was in Europe.

One member's suspicions that he was on the list seemed to be confirmed when his efforts to have the names announced and to discuss the issue resulted in the sudden and arbitrary adjournment of a church meeting he was attending.

Licensed taxicabs numbering 13,449 assist in the estimated daily attendance of 677,840 persons at New York theatres, according to the annual report of the department of licenses for 1922. Manhattan, according to the report, has 120 theatres, seating 187,416, and 182 motion picture houses, with accommodations for 137,371. More than 200,000 persons can find seats in the 45 theatres and 238 movie houses in Brooklyn.

The afternoon party was over and the two hostesses were holding the customary post-mortem, says Judge.

"Did you hear," asked one of them, "the howl of laughter that Ronald emitted when I dropped my spoon?"

"Did he howl?" was the reply. "Well, you know, my dear, he's considered a regular tea-hound."

England, furnish the chalks used in calcimines.

"And what is chalk? Chalk, or calcium carbonate, as it is called by the chemist, is nothing more than the remains of shells of crustaceous animals of ages ago. Limestone, though chemically calcium carbonate too, is physically entirely different from chalk. We have plenty of limestone in the United States but practically no chalk. Hence we have to import it all.

"The linseed and other oils we use in paint making come from California, Canada and the Argentine, also in lesser quantities from Japan, China and India. The pigments come from various parts of the world, largely the Orient. The gums from which varnish is made come from the South Seas, where they are dug out of the ground, from the spots where ages ago resinous trees grew. Turpentine comes from Mexico and the southern states of our own country.

"The component parts of paint are lead, zinc, pigment and linseed or some other oil, and sometimes turpentine. The mixing of paints is a very scientific subject, and what goes in depends upon the surface to be covered and the endurance demanded, while temperature, humidity and many other factors enter into the matter.

"The average man knows surprisingly little about paint, and consequently an up-to-date paint company is practically forced to maintain a 'school of painting,' to save its customers time and money. Just as the successful artist must know his paints, so must the house painter. It is impossible to obtain proper effects or satisfactory results unless this subject is at least mastered in its rudiments."

SPIRITUALITY VS MATERIALITY

THE CONFESSIONS OF A BABY
MY WARDROBE

Being a man, the question of clothes does not interest me much. All I ask is comfort. I want no ridgey seams or buttons, or heavy tape knots to press into my tender skin. I want my clothes loose enough so that they will not limit me when I want to wriggle. I want them of such a weight that they will keep me warm but not too warm. I want the garments next to my skin to be of material that will not tickle or scratch me, and of course, I like them dry. I want no pins to stick into any part of me.

I have no desire for dressy effects—no frills or furbelows for me. Any kind of lace or embroidery around my neck, I am sure, would irritate me. I like my outer garments made so that they can be put on over my feet instead of over my head. I am quite sure that pulling them over my head would be unpleasant, and I would probably protest in no uncertain terms.

I like my sleeves the kimono or raglan type because they are so much easier to put on me than the set-in sleeves. And, of course,, those garments are easier for my mamma to make. (I will tell you more about how my clothes are made in a later article).

Before I came, my mamma had a lot of fun making the most of my wardrobe. She did not spend a lot of time embroidering and sewing on lace and putting a lot of unnecessary work on my clothes, for she knew that the simpler and plainer my garments were, the better it would be for me.

I have quite an extensive wardrobe because I had a great number of things presented to me. However, many of them I never wear. I will give you a list that Doctor says every mamma should have ready for her baby when it comes. She says this list will do for all purposes during the first year.

With this list, the washing would not have to be done oftener than twice a week, excepting in the case of diapers; they should be washed every day.

Baby's First Outfit

4 abdominal bands of soft flannel for the first month:
4 knitted abdominal bands with shoulder straps and tabs, for after the first month;
4 cotton and wool shirts;
5 dozen diapers, in two sizes;
4 pairs of long, light weight merino stockings;
4 nightgowns;
6 Gertrude petticoats, 4 flannel, 2 nainsook;
6 cotton over dresses;
2 wrappers, cashmere and flannel;
1 coat;
1 cap;
2 sacks—knitted, flannel or cashmere;
1 yard square, knitted shawl or blanket.

Next week I'll let Doctor tell you more about my wardrobe. Until then, au revoir.

A. SOCKUMS.

Tomorrow—Answers to Correspondents

My Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose 4 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the columns as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

FROCKS WITH DASH OF YOUTH

Both of the dresses pictured here will interest the girl who is thinking of clothes she will need for college next year. The first is effective in cinnamon-brown wool crepe, trimmed with fancy braid or ribbon. The skirt is gathered and attached to the blouse, which is semi-tailored in effect. The motif embroidered on the left-front of the blouse is in brown, tan and gold. Medium size requires 3⅞ yards 36-inch material.

Satin-figured French flannel is practical and at the same time dressy for the next dress pictured. It is slashed at the center front and bound with ribbon, this trimming being repeated on the shaped cuffs of the short sleeves. If preferred self, instead of contrasting material may be used for the girdle, Pockets and cuffs, although the combination of two materials has the preference in favor of well-dressed women. Medium size requires 3 yards 36-inch figured and ½ yard 36-inch plain material.

First Model—Pictorial Review Dress No. 1689. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents. Embroidery No. 12820. Transfer, blue or yellow, 25 cents.

Second Model—Dress No. 1656. Sizes, 14 to 20 years. Price, 35 cents.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson:—I am a married woman, 33 years old. I have a good husband and four children, the oldest being 7 years and the baby 16 months. My husband makes a fair salary and is as generous as he can be, but with so many to provide for, he cannot do all for his family that he would like to. I do all my own work and the sewing for the children and myself. You can see that I do not have a lot of time to waste, and really, I am so busy most of the time that it is 10 o'clock at night before I can put away my mending and go to bed.

Two weeks ago an aunt of mine, my mother's sister, came to visit me. I have no relatives living in this town and so I looked forward to her visit with my whole heart. I have enjoyed having her with me, but she is more of a guest than I expected her to be. She does not help with the work in any way. Even whenfl I am in the kitchen doing dishes she stands and talks with me, but does not offer to wipe.

Yesterday morning something happened which made me rebellious about having a guest who demands so much. One of the children was sick and I had her to wait on just at the time I was getting my little boy off for school. I was not able to get my aunt's breakfast then because I was too busy. It was an hour after she got up before I could serve her coffee, rolls, eggs and bacon. She seemed irritable, and after the meal she told me that she would have to have breakfast as soon as she got up because she got faint.

My aunt says nothing about leaving and I don't know how long I will have her with me. My child is sick and it seems to me I cannot have a guest around any longer. What would you advise me to do, MRS. D. W. B.

Tell your aunt that because of your sick child you can no longer treat her as a guest. Say that she can help you a great deal if she will get her own breakfasts and make herself one of the family, expecting to do for herself. She may not take kindly to the suggestion and therefore leave after a day or two. I really believe when you no longer do so much for her she will shorten her visit.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am seventeen years old and a junior in high school. A boy has asked me to go to a party with him and my father says it would be all right for me to go, but my mother won't give her consent. She keeps telling me, "Perhaps."

I have never gone with a boy, but there will have to be some time for me to start. Don't you think I am old enough to go?

THEODORA.

It seems to me that you are old enough to go to the party. As you say there will always have to be a first time. I would not advise you to overdo the matter and have company and go places night after night, but an occasional "date" would be all right at your age.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of seventeen and have been going with a boy for ten months. The other day was his birthday and I gave him a gold knife with his initials engraved on t. Was I right in giving this? He does not care for books. Please give me your advice as this has been worrying me since I gave him the knife. I have gone with him "steady." DALLEY P.

You have no reason to worry because you gave the boy the knife. I am sure he appreciated the gift very much. Perhaps the superstition about knives is worrying you. Don't be superstitious.

Before criticizing others be sure you can do better.

Beauty Chats

by Edna Kent Forbes

BATHS

Too much importance cannot be attached to the daily bath. A study of the structure of the skin shows that certain superficial scales of the epidermis, that is, those on the outer surface of the skin which wear off in the natural course of change and growth, tend to collect and to form a substance which interferes with the sweat glands. Other substances exuded from the skin and the minute lint or woollen particles rubbed off the clothing also collect as part of this substance, and the only way to be healthy and beautiful is to wash these off thoroughly every day.

It is a secondary point whether the bath be hot, cold or tepid. The very warm bath, with proper soap, is the most generally cleansing, though a swim in cold sea water is even more cleansing, owing to the exercise and quantity of salt in the water. Turkish baths and Russian baths are the most cleansing of all, but require too much energy to be taken oftener than once a week, and even then only by stout or very strong people.

The bath water should be soft. If it is not, used something to soften it; a little borax will do wonders. Powdered bath salts, which are often advertised as preventives of rheumatism, also soften the water. Special hard water soaps can be purchased. A delightful bath lotion is made by mixing equal parts of white vinegar and benzoin. This should be allowed to steep for a week, then strained off into bottles; a few drops added to the bath water will make it delicious.

Castile or oatmeal soap is the best to use, because it keeps the skin soft and white. Perfumed bath crystals are tempting and expensive, but have one disadvantage, they are very drying to the skin. If you like perfume with the bath I would advise you to use a perfumed bath powder, afterward.

M. J.—When you are reducing, the loss should be about evenly distributed over the whole body, and since you say that you now have a 48-inch bust measure, I do not think you need fear that you might become flat-chested. As you are reducing through drugs.

Is Your Daily Bath a Pleasure?

I am suggesting that you do it under the care of your doctor.

L. M. S.—The easiest way to attain a good complexion is through observing all the rules of health. Do not eat more than you need. Take at least one hour of exercise during the day, out in the air if possible, and add to this a full warm bath daily.

Tomorrow—Beautifying Baby

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

Continue to work in check pattern, as before opening, across entire needle until length, from cast-on edge, is 17 inches. Last row p. In next row bind off first four stitches, for under-arm, then narrow one st. at each end of needle in each knitted row, until four sts. have been narrowed off at each end. In narrowing, care must be taken not to upset pattern throughout row. Hereafter narrow at end of each knitted row and not at the beginning, for neck and do this until 36 sts. remain on needle. Then work even for five rows, or until front of armhole is one inch longer than back. Bind off with buff. Make second front in same way, but bind off at beginning of purled row for under arm, and after one stitch has been narrowed off at each end of each knitted row four times, narrow at beginning of each knitted row until 36 stitches remain. Sew fronts and back together at shoulders.

Pocket: Pick up 26 sts. on 26 sts. cast on for top of pocket opening, using buff. K 1 row and p one row alternately for five inches, and bind off. Pick up 26 sts. cast off for opening, with one extra st. at each end, 28 sts. in all, using number one needle and holding outer surface of garment toward you. K 1, p 1, and repeat till ribbing is one inch deep. Bind off and sew ends securely to sweater. Sew pocket in place on inner surface of garment.

Front Band: With buff and number one needles cast on 16 sts. K 1, p 1, and repeat till work is three inches long. Make buttonhole as follows: K 1, p 1, and repeat for five sts. Bind off next six sts. and work as usual to end of needle. Next row k 1, p 1, and repeat for five sts. Cast on six sts. to replace those cast off, and contine to end of row as usual. Work four buttonholes in this way, three inches apart, then work without buttonholes till strip fits around neck and down other front. Baste in place, then sew to sweater.

Sleeves: Pick up 74 sts. around armhole from the four cast-off sts. of back to the four cast-off sts. of front, using buff and the number four and one-half needles. K 1 row, p 1 row, alternately for three inches, then decrease one st. at each end of every sixth row, till there are 44 sts. on needle. Work even till sleeve is right length. Change to number one needles and k 1, p 1 for three inches for cuff. Sew up seam of garment and sew buttons down front.

Tomorrow—Recipes from Readers.

One day a man in a show stood up and said: "I will tell any young man the name of his future wife."

A bright young man out of the audience stood up.

Showman—"What is your name?"

Young Fellow—"It is Brown."

Showman—"The name of your wife will be Mrs. Brown."

could, and get that wheat to town before the price went down; that is, if you were a farmer.

It is the same in this campaign. Right now BIG CREDITS are being issued for each and every subscription. After November 24 the schedule is reduced. Therefore, get every available subscription right away, and secure the big credits.

The campaign is rushing into its third week. There is no time to lose. If you are in this campaign to win, SHOW YOUR SPEED while speed counts. Next week may be forever too late. There are wonderful opportunities in both districts for present club members, and entirely new ones for that matter, to become leaders and win out, that it does not speak very well for those who are letting the matter drift along and not making tremendous gains EVERY SINGLE DAY of the first period.

New Leaders Show Up

Tomorrow's standing will no doubt create another furor of excitement. New leaders may spring up; club members who have apparently done nothing as yet may come to life and show surprising strength. Those who were in the lead may be in subordinate positions—anything may happen in a few days' time. Present club members will have to show greater speed than they have heretofore exhibited if they expect to keep the laurels to themselves. With such wide opportunities beckoning from both districts there will be sure to be new members coming on. They may be even the leaders next week at this time unless those now participating get into immediate action.

Thick Growth Once Covered Hillsides

pull one's self up the steep part of the trail by the wire made them muscularly sore for several days.

The party profited by the experience of other newcomers who mistakenly made the trip the previous August, when the midsummer sun was the hottest. This party left Glendale on a hot August day at 8 a. m. and, taking the Pacific Electric to the foot of the incline, made the summit with considerable effort over the "gullied" path washed by the winter rains. They had not taken the precaution of carrying canteens, and as the sun mounted their thirst grew.

Took Short Cut

After enjoying the view, the party determined to come down the trail leading into Verdugo canyon and one adventuresome member thought he saw a short cut and, taking it, was soon lost to sight in the thick chapparal and the party did not meet until some hours later in Glendale.

The three other members followed the trail over the hills into Verdugo canyon, which brought them to the floor of the valley near the Mesnager vineyard, owned by the late Col. Mesnager, the French patriot, famous in the world war.

But the adventuresome fourth found his "short cut" a misnomer, for it was "cut short" in a few strides. Seeking a waterway to lead him down, the trail seemed to lie a little below, covered with vines and chapparal. Thinking to break this down and land on the trail, a leap ended most disastrously for, although the vines gave way, the chapparal did not, and the adventurer was "hung up" literally, as the chapparal bore up under his weight and his legs did not reach the ground. In this predicament the only way to extricate himself was by leaping and rolling over the tops until an opening let him down to the earth's surface. During this performance the unwilling acrobat acquired a coating which rendered his indistinguishable as to color or race.

Taking advantage of the small canyon, at last the trail led into the yard of the old Verdugo ranch house and, after refreshing himself with copious drinks of water and huge slices of watermelon, he was able to proceed to his home in Glendale, a very satisfied but exceedingly sore individual.

Oil Companies Waging Colorado Price Battle

DENVER, Nov. 9.—Fifteen cents a gallon with the road tax paid is the new price in Denver for gasoline.

The Continental Oil company inaugurated the cut, which was quickly followed by the Denver Union Oil company, who sent their price 9 cents below that of the Continental, selling gas at their stations for 13 cents. The largest companies to follow in the wake of the Continental and Denver Union were the Sinclair Refining company, the Mutual Oil company and the Paramount Oil company. A cut of 1 cent a gallon throughout the state was reported. The Texas company is the only concern reported not following the example of the others.

Scenery of Swiss Riviera Entrancing changed enough of our Swiss money into Italian for me to buy a ticket at Iselle to a point further down, so as to stay on the same train, which was an international train from Amsterdam to Milan, and we were carried down to Stresa on Lake Maggiore (Mazhora).

"Thus we got quite a little trip into Italy ahead of time. We found that from this point we could take a lake boat for Locarno, whence our tickets were again good to Lugano. As soon as we had crossed the Alps we discovered semi-tropic vegetation similar to our own.

Yes, We Have Some Bananas

"The vineyards bore black grapes instead of white as in Suisse. We saw palms, magnolias, loquats, banana plants and a few oranges. Cosmos and hydrangeas reminded us of home. I saw a lizard, the first in Europe. The cattle were a black or dark breed.

"I noticed some cement construction, notably a picket fence made of concrete with granite posts. 'Some fence!' That is only surpassed by some fences in Suisse of solid granite slabs, three or four inches thick, five feet high, set solidly together. Of course, granite must be easily accessible, but imagine the work of cutting, transporting and placing!

"Lake Maggiore is a large lake, as long as Geneva but not quite so wide. Towns and villages line its shores in an almost continuous mass. I went uptown a little while in Stresa to get a touch of Italian life, and we took our boat at 3:25 p. m. for Locarno, which is at the upper end of the lake, stopping at many places, arriving there at 7 p. m.

Italians On Vacation

"It was a lovely ride. The Italians seem to be continuing their vacations as the resorts were all receiving and discharging many visitors. The boat made good time, and when I tell you that we sat out on deck until after dark, in comfort, you may know how warm it was. We couldn't do that in California.

"Locarno itself is the gem of Lake Maggiore and is in a fine location, with large hotels and fine villas on the hillsides encircling the head of the lake. We found a splendid hotel there, in which we camped. Next morning (Sunday) I inquired as to the churches and found that they were all Catholic and all with services in Italian, but one of which was German.

"Understanding neither the language nor the form of worship, I decided that to attend would be only idle curiosity, and that quiet meditation or a walk would be better service for me.

"At 4:40 we left, arriving at Lugano at 6:30. We had been advised that the Victoria hotel in Lugano Paradiso, the southern end of the city, was a good one, so here we came and have found it so. The wife and daughter have a room overlooking the lake, about one hundred yards distant, and I have one looking up the hill on the other side. We are not stopping 'pension,' so we eat what we please, when and where we please. We find the eats so good here, however, that we are enjoying all of them.

"The town is much like Locarno, beautifully located on the hillsides surrounding the head of the lake, but it is prettier, because Lake Lugano is smaller and the hills and villages on the other side give a 'homey' feeling. A double row of trees extends up the lake front, with little parks and open spaces here and there and boat landings. Good sized steamers ply the lake.

"The larger Lake Como is just east of here. This Italian lake section is well known and is called the Swiss Riviera. It is surely a beautiful section. The city of Lugano is very Italian in its business section; alley streets with fruit, vegetables, cheese and even dry goods displayed out in the street, are characteristic. Grapes, pears, peaches and figs constitute the principal fruits, while cauliflower, turnips, beans and carrots are the principal vegetables.

"Two tram lines up the mountains present gorgeous views. We have been here nearly a week now. Our weather was so beautiful till Wednesday, when a rain storm, with thunder and lightning, continued all day. Snow fell on the lower mountains as it does on Mount Lowe, and the atmosphere grew chilly. The papers report a big storm along the coast, with loss of many vessels, and the English Channel impassable.

Stay a Week

"It has now cleared and is beautiful again. The rest is doing us all good. The wife is very perceptibly benefited, so we will let well enough alone and stay here another week.

"We are happy, but hungry for news from home. After October 25 our next mailing address will be Rome, in care of the American Express company. Please note!"

Another Kirk travelogue will appear in The Glendale Evening News in the near future.

12,000 Deer Slain by California Nimrods

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—More than 12,000 deer were killed by hunters in California during the season just closed, according to George Neale, executive officer of the State Fish and Game Commission.

"Deer are more plentiful in California than for a decade," said Neale. "With the possible exception of the mule deer, whose habitat is in the lava beds of Modoc and adjoining counties, where little protection is afforded, all species are increasing in numbers."

It is believed that mountain lions have accounted for as many deer as fell victims to hunters.

Beauty Lured Buyers To Bootleggers, Claim

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—Four men were arrested, a large quantity of liquor and counterfeit labels and stamps, valued at several thousand dollars were seized, in a series of liquor raids conducted yesterday by the Hollywood police and federal authorities.

As the result of the raids the officers sought a beautiful young woman said to have acted as a "lure" in obtaining customers for an alleged liquor ring.

E. M. Garrett was arrested when caught unloading two cases of gin into an automobile. Later a search of his house revealed additional liquor and a large quantity of labels and stamps, the officers said.
